IT'S ABOUT PRIDE

DABO SWINNEY

Dabo Swinney's first full season as Clemson Head Coach was full of significant accomplishments. At the forefront was the Atlantic Division Championship of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the first division title for the program since the ACC went to Division play in 2005.

Clemson also finished the season with a top 25 final AP ranking and a Music City Bowl championship. Clemson finished with nine victories, giving Swinney the second most victories among Division I coaches in their first full season with a program. It was also the fourth most wins for a first-year coach in ACC history. Swinney was recognized as the ACC Coach of the Year by Sporting News and was named one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year. This was achieved against a schedule that included four top 15 teams.

The season featured the play of unanimous All-American C.J. Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, who finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He had over 300 all-purpose yards in wins over Florida State and Miami, the first time Clemson defeated both of those teams in the same year.

The win over Miami was a 40-37 overtime thriller when Kyle Parker completed a 28-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Ford for the winning points in "walk-off fashion."

Academic Excellence

- Clemson has had 50 players in the last 10 seasons who have played for the Tigers after they earned their undergraduate degree. That includes three current Tigers (Mike Wade, Terrance Ashe and Richard Jackson on the 2010 team).
- Clemson's football team had 33 players named to the Academic Honor Roll for the 2010 spring semester, the third straight semester with at least 30 selections. The list of academic honor roll selections included first-team All-ACC players DeAndre McDaniel and Michael Palmer.
- Each of the top-eight team GPAs have taken place in the last 10 years. That includes the 2010 spring semester when the team had a 2.56 GPA, second-best on record.
- Seven Clemson players made the Academic All-ACC team for 2009, the most in Clemson history for one season. Clemson was second to Duke in the number of selections. The list of Tigers included All-American Thomas Austin, and Freshman All-American Dalton Freeman.
- In the last four years, 73 of the 79 players who have stayed at Clemson until their final year have graduated (92.4 percent). That includes a graduation rate of 91 percent for scholarship football players (58-64) who have stayed until their senior season. All 20 seniors on the 2006 team received their degrees, and 16 of the 18 seniors on the 2009 team already have their degrees.
- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team academic All-Americans in 2000 and 2001. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection. He is one of just two offensive linemen in college football history to be a three-time, first-team academic All-American. He is currently an associate athletic director in the Clemson Athletic Department.
- Chad Carson joined Kyle Young in graduating from Clemson University Summa Cum Laude. In 2002, Carson reached the final stage of the Rhodes Scholarship selection process, as he was the only Division I football player in the nation who could make that prestigious claim.

All-Star Selections

- Clemson has a history of decorated football players. The program boasts 62 different All-Americans in its history, including three members of the 2009 team. C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2009, just the third unanimous All-American in Clemson history.

In the last four years, 73 of the 79 players who have stayed at Clemson until their final year have graduated.

He was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting. Spiller was joined by junior DeAndre McDaniel, a first-team Football Writers Association All-America at safety, and Thomas Austin, a third-team All-American at offensive guard by Sporting News.

- Offensive linemen Barry Richardson and Chris McDuffie were both named to various teams in 2007, the first time in Tiger history that two offensive linemen on the same team were named All-American.
- In 2006, the late Gaines Adams was a unanimous All-American and was the number-four selection of the NFL draft. Adams, Spiller and Terry Kinard are the three first-team unanimous All-Americans in Clemson history.
- The Clemson program has had at least one All-American in 30 of the last 33 years.
- Clemson has had at least one First-Team All-ACC player each of the last 33 years, the longest active streak and the longest overall streak in ACC history. In 2009, Spiller, Michael Palmer and McDaniel were first-team selections, while four other players were second team choices.
- Clemson had nine players named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team, more than any other school. The list of honorees shows the balance of the program over the years, as every area of a football team (by position) was represented. The nine players are Joe Bostic, Jerry Butler, Bennie Cunningham, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller, Terry Kinard, Michael Dean Perry, William Perry, and Anthony Simmons. All nine players were All-Americans during at least one season at Clemson and played in the NFL.

Bowl History

- Clemson's victory in the 2009 Music City Bowl was its 32nd bowl game in history. Clemson's 16-win total in those games is 18th-most in history.
- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. Leahy is still second in college football history in winning percentage.
- Clemson won five straight bowl games between the 1986 and 1990 seasons, tied for the eighth-longest winning streak in college football history in consecutive seasons. Clemson defeated Stanford, Penn State, Oklahoma, West Virginia, and Illinois during the stretch.
- Clemson has defeated some of the top coaches in college football history in bowl competition. Among the list of celebrated head coaches who have lost to Clemson in bowl games since the ACC was founded are Joe Paterno (winningest coach in Division I history on a total-victories basis), Barry Switzer (#4-winningest Division I coach on a winning percentage basis), and Tom Osborne (#7-winningest Division I coach on a winning percentage basis). Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in 1978 in the Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has defeated nine head coaches in bowl games who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- The 2009 Music City Bowl was Clemson's 21st bowl appearance since 1985, a tangible representation of the program's consistency. That mark is ninth in the nation in bowl appearances in the last 25 seasons. The Tigers have been to a bowl game 10 of the last 11 years and have been bowl-eligible 11 straight seasons.

Championship Tradition

- The Tigers were named National Champions by every service in 1981, as they were the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). The year included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team in college football to beat three top-10 teams in 1981. It was just the second national title for an ACC school.
- The 1981 team had five All-Americans on its roster, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard, and

C.J. Spiller, a unanimous first-team All-American, was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2009.

Head Coach Danny Ford and the Tigers celebrated the 1981 National Championship as the country's only undefeated team (12-0).

Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their careers.

- Since the ACC was formed in 1953, Clemson has more overall wins (388) and ACC wins (233) than any other school.
- Clemson won the Atlantic Division Championship of the ACC in 2009.
- Clemson has won 13 ACC titles (12 outright and one tied), still the all-time ACC record.
- Clemson won the Southern Conference title in 1940 and 1948 along with the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1900 and 1902, giving the program 17 conference crowns.

Coaching Success

- Clemson has a legendary history when it comes to coaching. Three former Tiger mentors (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely) are already in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. No coach had more league titles than Howard during his 30-year tenure at Clemson. He concluded his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure still is third-longest in NCAA history for a coach serving at one school.
- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the National Championship in 1981 and won six bowl games in his Clemson career, second on the all-time ACC coaching list. His 76-percent winning mark is also second-best in ACC history. He was the consensus national coach-of-the-year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title.

Clemson Alma Mater

Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the Tigers play
Here the sons of dear old Clemson
Reign supreme alway.

Chorus

Dear old Clemson, we will triumph
And with all our might
That the Tigers' roar may echo
O'er the mountain height.

- Tommy Bowden continued the tradition of outstanding Tiger coaches by leading the team to bowl games each of his first five years, the only coach in Clemson history to do that. He was ACC Coach-of-the-Year twice. In 2003, he became the second Tiger coach to defeat three top-25 teams in the same year and the second to record at least two top-10 wins in one year. He led Clemson to eight consecutive winning seasons, the longest streak by one coach in school history and coached the Tigers in eight bowl games, tied for third-most in ACC history.
- Current Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney was named the ACC Coach of the Year by The Sporting News and was one of 10 national finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year. He led Clemson to nine wins in his first full season, second in the nation among first year coaches in 2009.

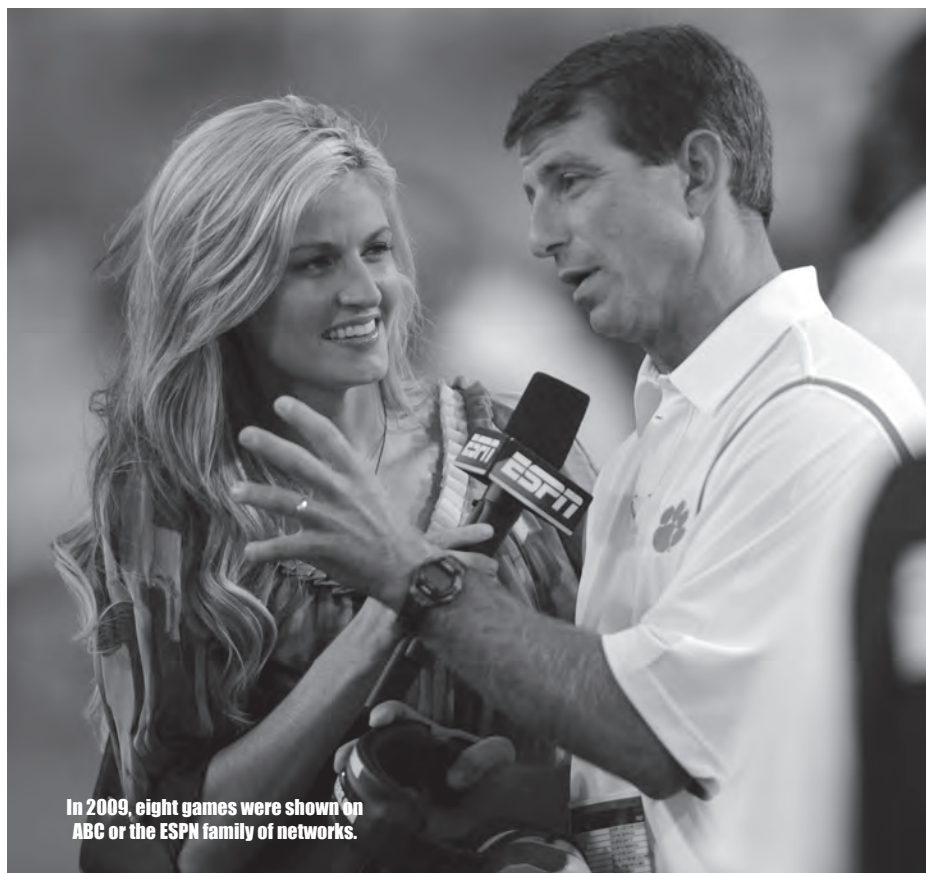

Conference Competitiveness

- Clemson is a charter member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Year in and year out, the ACC is considered among the best of the BCS conferences. The league is competitive with 12 teams, nine of whom went to bowls in 2009. The conference had a record 10 bowl teams in 2008.
- Clemson has posted 10 straight winning seasons, a streak that dates to a 9-3 record in 2000. Clemson was one of just 14 schools nationally with a winning season in every year of the 2000s.
- Clemson, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Maryland, and Miami (FL) are schools within the conference that have won a national title.
- When Clemson running back C.J. Spiller, the ACC's Player of the Year, was chosen as the 9th overall selection it preserved a streak for the Conference of having a player chosen among the Top 10 Draft picks in each of the past five years. Since the 2006 Draft, the ACC is the only conference to have had a Top 10 selection in each of the past five years.
- Since 2006, the ACC has 16 Top Ten NFL selections, trailing only the SEC (17) in that category. The Big 12 was next with 12 Top Ten draftees since 2006.

- In the last four years, the ACC has 34 first-round selections, second nationally among leagues by just two.
- No fewer than 17 players on the rosters of the 2010 Super Bowl teams played their collegiate football at ACC schools, while 10 of the coaches had some connection to an ACC institution. The American Football Conference Champion Colts had six coaches with ACC ties led by head coach Jim Caldwell, who spent eight seasons as head coach at Wake Forest from 1993 through the 2000 season. Former Clemson offensive coordinator Clyde Christensen was on that staff.
- For the second straight year, the Atlantic Coast Conference led all conferences by a wide margin in the number of former football standouts selected from its current schools to play in the National Football League's Pro Bowl. Current ACC schools saw 23 of their former standouts selected to play in this year's Pro Bowl. The Southeastern Conference was second with 15 selections, with the Big Ten third with 14. The Pac-10 had 13 selections followed by the Big 12 and the Big East with 11 honorees each.
- For the fifth consecutive year, the Atlantic Coast Conference led all conferences in the nation in the Football Bowl Subdivision in graduating its football players. ACC schools have combined to graduate their players at a rate of 72.33 percent according to the NCAA's 2009 Graduation Success Rate (GSR) survey.

Exposure

- Clemson is one of the most-televised teams in the nation every year. In 2009, 11 of Clemson's 14 games were on some type of live television. Eight games were shown on ABC or on the ESPN family of networks.
- Clemson's 2009 senior class had 45 of their 53 games on live television, including 37 games on one of the ESPN family of networks.
- Clemson has averaged nine televised games during the last 25 years.
- Every season, the Clemson vs. Florida State game is one of the nation's most highly-rated college football games. In 2007, the game was played on Labor Day night on

In 2009, eight games were shown on ABC or the ESPN family of networks.

In 2010, C.J. Spiller became Clemson's fourth first-round draft pick in the last 10 years.

ESPN and had a 5.02 rating, the highest-rated game on the opening weekend of college football.

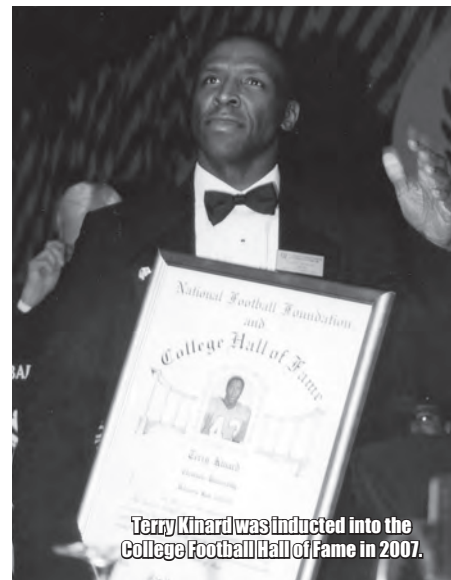

- Clemson's 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl game against #21 Auburn also had a 5.02 rating on ESPN, the highest rated of the 19 bowl games shown by ESPN during the post-season and is the fifth highest rated bowl game for ESPN in its history.
- The exposure has led to great home attendance figures in Memorial Stadium. Clemson set a school record for season tickets in 2008 and led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last two years. Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the nation in home attendance every year since 1983.

First-Round Draft Picks

- C.J. Spiller was the #9 overall selection of the 2010 NFL draft, the first ACC player chosen. He was the 23rd first-round draft pick in Clemson history. He was the fourth first-round pick for the Clemson program in the last 10 years. All four players earned their academic degrees from Clemson.
- Gaines Adams was the #4 overall pick of the 2007 NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Adams tied for the highest draft pick by a Tiger in history and the highest since 1939, when Banks McFadden was the #4 overall pick of the NFL draft by the Brooklyn Dodgers. Adams' selection tied for the third-highest pick in any sport in Tiger history.
- Clemson has had a top-32 selection in the NFL draft each of the last four years. Spiller was the number-nine choice in 2010, Phillip Merling was the #32 overall pick in 2008 by the Miami Dolphins. Gaines Adams was the #4 overall pick of the NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2007, and Tye Hill was the #15 overall pick of the Saint Louis Rams in 2006. Clemson was one of just three schools nationally to have a top-15 pick in both 2006 and 2007.
- Clemson had an ACC-record 10 players drafted in 1983.
- Clemson has had 203 players drafted over the years, including five players from the 2009 team. Clemson was also among the top-15 teams in the nation in drafted players in April of 2007 when it had six selected.

Hall of Fame

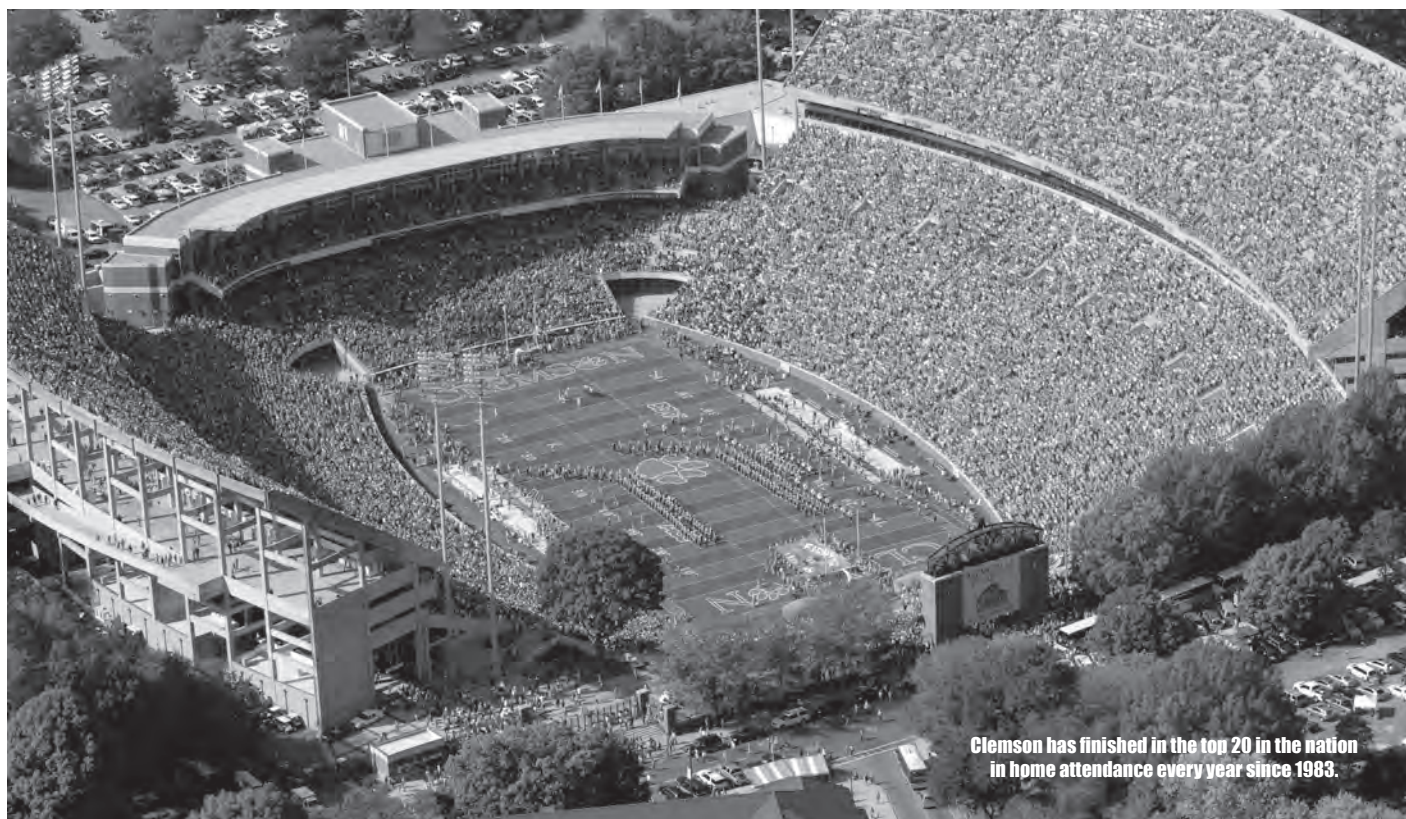

- Former Clemson consensus All-American and 1981 National Championship team captain Jeff Davis was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007. Davis is regarded as one of the great leaders of any team in Tiger athletics history. He had 175 tackles on the 1981 team, leading the Tigers to a perfect 12-0 record.
- Jeff Davis was the second member of Clemson's National Championship team to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Terry Kinard was inducted in 2001 in New York City. Both Davis and Kinard are also members of the Clemson Ring of Honor.
- Clemson had a special night in New York City on December 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.

- Terry Kinard was the first Tiger football player to win a national individual award. He was named 1982 national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS. That year (his senior season), he was a unanimous first-team All-American, the first unanimous All-American in Clemson football history. He was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002, and he was also listed among the top-50 athletes in the history of the ACC, regardless of sport.
- Three former Clemson coaches are in the College Football Hall of Fame. The list includes John Heisman (1900-03), Jess Neely (1931-39), and Frank Howard (1940-69).
- Banks McFadden, Clemson's greatest all-around athlete and an AP First-Team All-American in 1939, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959.

Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the nation in home attendance every year since 1983.

Clemson finished the 2009 season ranked in the top 25 of the AP poll for the 24th time thanks in part to its overtime victory at #8 Miami (FL).

NFL Influence

- Twenty-two former Tigers have combined to win 30 Super Bowl Championship rings. Linebacker Anthony Waters was a member of the 2010 New Orleans Saints, who won the Super Bowl championship. It was the second straight year a former Tiger played on a Super Bowl Champion. Defensive tackle Nick Eason was a member of the 2009 Pittsburgh Steelers' Super Bowl Championship team. The leader is Jeff Bostic, who started on three Super Bowl Championship teams with the Washington Redskins.
- Clemson has had an alum on a Super Bowl Championship team seven of the last 12 years. Clemson was one of six schools to have a representative on each of the four teams involved in the conference championship games at the end of the 2005 season.
- Trevor Pryce, an All-ACC player at Clemson during the 1996 season, has won two Super Bowl Championship rings and been a four-time Pro Bowl selection. He was one of eight former Clemson defensive linemen on NFL rosters in 2006 and finished the season with 13.5 sacks, among the top-five totals in the NFL.

- Brian Dawkins is one of the stars of the NFL among defensive players. A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team when he finished the season 10th in the nation in interceptions. He became the first player in NFL history in 2002 to have a sack, interception, recovered fumble, and receiving touchdown in the same game. He has been named to the Pro Bowl eight times in the last 11 seasons, including the 2010 Pro Bowl. The current Denver Bronco has been named to the Pro Bowl more than any other former Tiger.
- Levon Kirkland, now an administrator in the admissions office at Clemson, was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Steelers.

Poll Presence

- The 2009 season marked the 24th year that Clemson was ranked in the final top 25 of the AP poll. It was the third time in the last five years that Clemson was ranked in the final top 25. The Tigers' highest ranking is #1, a mark achieved on November 30, 1981 and in the final poll that season (January 4, 1982).
- Clemson once had a streak of 46 consecutive weeks ranked in the AP poll during the 1980s.
- Clemson finished in the top 20 of all the final polls from 1986-91, a six-year streak. The Tigers had exactly two losses in each of those six seasons.
- Clemson was ranked in the final top 20 of the AP poll six times in the 1980s. The Tigers were fifth in the nation in winning percentage during that decade.
- Beating ranked opponents has been a hallmark of Clemson's success. The Tigers have beaten an AP-ranked opponent 20 of last 24 years, including 11 top-25 victories in the last seven years.
- Clemson has five top-10 wins in the last seven years, including a victory over #3 Florida State in 2003, the highest-ranked team the Tigers have beaten in history. In 2009, Clemson won at eighth ranked Miami, 40-37 in overtime in one of the most exciting games in Clemson history.

Prominent Former Tigers

- Dwight Clark had his number-87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 1981 and 1984 (seasons) Super Bowl Championship 49ers teams. He is most famous for his game winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship game. He was the NFL MVP in 1982, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.
- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl selection with the Cowboys. A member of the Cowboys "Ring of Honor," he played on two Super Bowl Championship teams before going on to a college coaching career at Oregon.
- Charlie Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.
- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl Champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player-of-the-Year in their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

Brian Dawkins, who is in his second year with the Broncos, was named to the Pro Bowl for the eighth time in 2009.

The #1 question from the news media for Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney leading up to the 2010 season will be, "How do you replace C.J. Spiller?"

Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American last year when he gained an ACC record 2,680 all-purpose yards, including 1,212 rushing and 503 receiving. He became the first player in league history with at least 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. He added four kickoff returns for touchdowns and a punt return for a score in the return game, and was the only Division I player to score a touchdown in every game last year. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the first Tiger to win that award in 22 years.

Swinney's answer is direct. "You can't replace C.J. Spiller, he was a once in a lifetime player who did so many things for our team. It will take three or four players to do what he did last year for us."

While Swinney will miss Spiller, whom he personally recruited to Clemson from Lake Butler, FL in 2006, Swinney feels he does have those three or four players needed to provide the yardage, points and leadership Spiller recorded at an unprecedented rate in 2009.

We have outstanding running backs in Andre Ellington and Jamie Harper. They give you a good one-two punch as far as their different styles of running. Both of those backs can catch the ball out of the backfield, and we have capable return men. We just don't have one player who can do all the things C.J. did."

The stats back up Swinney's optimism to some degree. Ellington and Harper combined for 909 yards in 148 carries last year, an average of 6.2 yards per rush, ahead of Spiller's 5.6 average per carry.

Another reason for optimism about the 2010 Tigers on offense is the offensive line. The Tigers lose an All-American guard in team leader Thomas Austin, who led the team in knockdown blocks last year and had over 300 for his career, but Clemson does return four starters on the offensive line.

The experience of the offensive line has been the most direct indicator of success for Clemson teams the last 40 years. Since 1965 when college football went to a two-platoon system, Clemson has won an average of nine games per year when it returns at least four offensive line starters from the previous year. You only have to go back to the 2009 season to see that stat at work. Clemson returned four offensive line starters last year, won nine games and finished in the AP top 25.

Leading the offensive line is All-America candidate Chris Hairston, a 6-7, 325-pound tackle who will be in his third year as a starter in 2010. Joining him as returning starters are sophomore center Dalton Freeman, junior tackle Landon Walker, and junior guard Antoine McClain.

Chris Hairston

Those men provided a solid wall of protection for Clemson's quarterback in 2010. As of our publication deadline, it was not known whether or not Kyle Parker would return as Clemson's starting quarterback. Parker tied for the national lead in victories by a freshman starting quarterback last year with nine and threw for 20 touchdown passes, fourth most in Clemson history.

A first-round draft choice of the Colorado Rockies in June, Parker became the first athlete in Division I sports history to throw 20 touchdown passes and hit 20 home runs in the same academic year. He hit exactly 20 round-trippers and hit .344 in helping the Tigers to a Final Four finish at the College World Series. So, Parker was a starter for two top 25 teams that won Atlantic Division Championships last year.

He was to make a decision as his future as a baseball player in late July.

If he does not return the quarterback position will be held by red-shirt freshman Tajh Boyd or senior Mike Wade. Neither of the two has thrown a pass in a college game.

The wide receiver area does not have a returning player who had as many as 15 receptions last year, but that is not a major concern for Swinney, who coached that position from 2003-08 under Tommy Bowden before he became Clemson's head coach. Clemson must replace Jacoby Ford, who had 56 catches and was the fastest player in college football last year.

"We have good receivers," said Swinney. "When we get on the field in the fall, someone will emerge as 'the guy.' We were in this position in 2004 and Airese Currie led the ACC in receptions. We were in this position going into the 2005 season and Chansi Stuckey made All-ACC and Curtis Baham stepped up and had a great season. Then Aaron Kelly, Tyler Grisham and Jacoby Ford did the same the following year. It is exciting to see new guys emerge."

The Clemson defense also has some holes to fill. Chris Chancellor and Crezdon Butler started each of the last 40 games together at cornerback. Ricky Sapp was a four-year player who finished his career with 41 tackles for loss and 15 sacks. And linebacker Kavell Conner, who was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts, was the top tackler each of the last two years and might be regarded as the most underrated defensive player at Clemson in the last decade.

But the Tigers do have three returning players who are listed as preseason candidates for the Bronko Nagurski Defensive Player of the Year Award. One is returning first-team All-America safety DeAndre McDaniel, who led the ACC in interceptions last year with eight, tying a Clemson record. Like Spiller before him, he rejected an opportunity to turn professional and will return for his senior year.

"DeAndre McDaniel is one of the top defensive players in the nation," said Swinney. "What he did last year in his first year as a safety was extraordinary. But, he has another level and he made a great decision coming back for his senior year. He will be the leader of the defense."

The two other Nagurski candidates are defensive end DaQuan Bowers and defensive tackle Jarvis Jenkins. Jenkins is a run-stopper and Bowers a quarterback pursuer were big reasons Clemson ranked in the top 25 in seven different defensive categories last year.

The returning linebackers include Brandon Maye, who had 103 tackles last year, third on the team. But, he is the only returning starter at the second line of defense. Kevin Alexander, who also saw time at defensive end, has graduated after a solid senior year that saw him rack up 50 stops.

"I was pleased with the performance of the defense last season. They were more aggressive and you could see that in our sack totals (36, second in the ACC after getting just 14 the previous year) and turnovers forced (30, ranked 15th in the nation)."

The Tigers were an overall tougher team in 2009 and that is something that Swinney hopes will carry over into 2010 and beyond. "That was one of our goals going into last year and that will be a goal each year. We saw that at the end of the Kentucky game. We controlled the line of scrimmage in the fourth quarter and finished the game by controlling the ball for the last 5:37. That was the way to finish the season. That epitomized toughness.

"But that is something you want to develop every year. We always aspire to be a smarter team, be a close team and be a tough team. Those are goals we look to achieve every year.

"It all goes back to a daily focus, a daily focus in practice from the start of Spring practice, into the pre-season and into the season. That all leads to focus on game day and a consistent execution at a high level."

Offense (7 Returning Starters, 23 Returning Lettermen)

Balance was the watchword for the Clemson offense in 2009. The Tigers rushed for 2,385 yards and passed for 2,688 yards, just the third Clemson offense in history with at least 2,300 yards of each in the same season.

That will be a key to success for Clemson in 2010 as well. "We always want to keep the opposing defense uncomfortable and you do that with balance," said Swinney. "We had that last year. We had 24 rushing touchdowns and 23 passing touchdowns. I feel we can do that again in 2010."

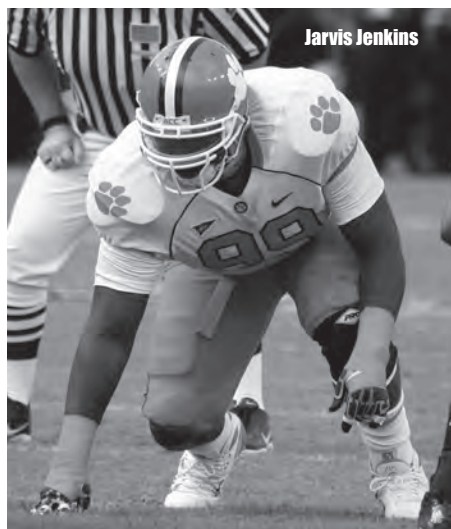

If Parker returns, Clemson will have an experienced starter. In 2009, he completed 205 of 369 passes for 2,526 yards and 20 touchdowns against 12 interceptions. Those stats were Clemson freshman records in all categories, breaking marks previously held by Charlie Whitehurst, who could be the starting quarterback with the Seattle Seahawks this year. The yardage total was the fifth best in ACC history by a freshman and his total offense figure was fourth best.

Parker started all 14 games last year and led the Tigers to a 9-5 record, a #24 final ranking and the Atlantic Division championship of the ACC. Only Southern California quarterback Matt Barkley also led his team to nine wins and a top 25 final ranking as a freshman in 2009.

Boyd was a highly regarded athlete from Virginia who sat out last year and was ranked among the top 60 players in the nation by ESPN.com coming out of high school. He has a strong arm and impressed Clemson coaches during his work with the scout team last year.

All-around athlete Mike Wade will also be in the mix at quarterback. He also serves as the holder on all placekicks and is a coverage player on the punt and kickoff teams and will see some time at safety on defense. He played nearly 250 special teams plays last year.

The running back position will be led by red-shirt sophomore Andre Ellington and junior Jamie Harper. Ellington is the top returning rusher from last year with 491 yards in 68 carries, an average of 7.22 yards per carry. That average was third best in Clemson history and just below the 7.27 average Spiller had his freshman year.

Jarvis Jenkins

"At times last year when I turned on the video after a game I had to do a double take and make sure it was #23 and not #28," said Swinney. "He is a very disciplined runner who follows his assignments very well. He can also catch the ball out of the backfield."

Harper had 418 yards rushing in 80 carries and scored four touchdowns last year. He averaged 5.2 yards per carry and showed his speed on a 69-yard touchdown run at NC State, the longest run of the season by a Clemson running back. "Jamie was our top rusher in the bowl win over Kentucky. He made some runs on the last drive that showed his toughness."

Roderick McDowell, a 5-9 running back from Sumter, SC, will be active in 2010 after red-shirting the 2009 season. He reminds many of Ellington in his running style.

Each of Clemson's top three receivers from last year have graduated. Ford led the way a year ago with 56 catches for 779 yards and six scores and finished his career in the top 10 in Clemson history in catches, reception yards, all-purpose yards and reception touchdowns. First-team All-ACC Tight end Michael Palmer had 43 catches for 507 yards, school records for the position. Spiller was third with 36 catches for 503 yards.

That means there will be openings at the receiver position for 2010. Senior Xavier Dye is the leading returning pass catcher with 14 receptions for 236 yards and three scores, and is the only returning starter at the position. He actually caught one touchdown pass from Parker, one from Spiller and one from Ford in 2009. His top game was against Florida State when he caught three passes for 68 yards, including a 43-yard touchdown from Parker.

Terrence Ashe looks to move into the starting lineup. Originally a walk-on, the senior had 11 catches for 124 yards last season and has 21 career catches. He is also regarded as one of the top blockers among the Tigers pass catchers.

Marquan Jones caught nine passes for 176 yards in 2009 and his 19.6 average was the best on the team. Jaron Brown, Brandon Clear and Brandon Ford are returning lettermen who caught passes last season and will be factors in 2010. Bryce McNeal is a red-shirt freshman who will also have every chance to see significant playing time this year. Incoming freshman DeAndre Hopkins will also have a chance to make a big contribution at the wide receiver position.

The tight end position was never more involved in the Clemson offense than it was in 2009 and that should be the plan for the offense coordinated by Billy Napier going forward. Dwayne Allen is the top candidate to lead the tight end position. He is actually a returning starter from last year when he made six starts and appeared in all 14 games. He had 10 catches for 108 yards and three touchdowns. The touchdown total tied a Clemson freshman record for a tight end.

Chad Diehl is one of the most valuable players on the Clemson offense. You won't find his name prominent in the rushing or receiving stats, but his lead blocking from the fullback and tight end positions had a lot to do with Clemson's improvement in the rushing attack from 89th in the nation in 2008 to 40th in 2009.

The leader of the offensive line is Chris Hairston, who will be in his third year as starting left tackle. He has started 23 of the 27 games over the last two years and was named second-team All-ACC as a junior. Clemson was 9-3 last year when he was in the starting lineup and 0-2 when he was out due to injury.

Hairston was at his best in Clemson's 40-37 overtime victory against Miami when he had a season high 85 percent grade and seven knockdown blocks. He finished the year with 46 knockdown blocks and has 106 for his career.

Landon Walker joins Hairston as returning two-year starters at tackle. The son of a former Clemson player, Walker started 12 games last year and has 22 starts over the last two years. He had 33 knockdown blocks last year, including five against TCU when he held TCU first team All-American Jerry Hughes without a sack and limited him to just two tackles. He also graded 82 percent in the win over Miami.

Dalton Freeman is the returning starter at center. The native of Pelion, SC started the last nine games of the season and played 542 snaps in 13 games. The first-team Freshman All-American's insertion into the starting lineup paralleled Clemson's offensive resurgence at midseason. The first game he started was against Wake Forest, the school his father had played for. Clemson won that game 38-3 and went on a six-game winning streak that led to the Atlantic Division ACC title.

Junior Antoine McClain is the fourth returning starter on the 2010 offensive line. The native of Alabama started all 14 games last year and had 68 knockdown blocks, second best on the team. He had 12.5 knockdowns against Georgia Tech in the regular season game and 10 more in the ACC title game against the Yellow Jackets, helping the Tigers to at least 27 points in both games.

In many ways, Clemson really has five returning starters in 2010. Mason Cloy started five games last year at center and has 17 starts in his career. But, he suffered a broken leg in the ACC Championship game and missed the bowl game. He should be healthy when practice starts in August. Cloy was a freshman All-American in 2008.

Swinney has four other returning lettermen offensive linemen. The list is led by David Smith, who has experience at both guard and tackle and he will see playing time at both positions this spring. The junior has played in 19 games over the last two years and has three starts.

Wilson Norris is a reserve guard who has played 15 games over the last two years, while Matt Sanders lettered at guard last year after playing six games as a freshman. Ben Ramsey is a veteran reserve center who has played in 15 games over the last three seasons. Sanders will also see some time at center this year. Red-shirt freshman Brandon Thomas will also be a factor on the offensive line in 2010 at tackle. Kalon Davis is a first-year freshman who entered in January.

Defense (6 returning Starters, 23 returning lettermen)

On paper, the strength of the Clemson defense should be on the front four and in the secondary. The Tigers return three of four starters on the defensive line, two starters in the secondary plus the return of a Freshman All-American, and one starter at linebacker.

The leader of the defense will be safety DeAndre McDaniel, who had perhaps the best all-around season by a Clemson defensive back since College Football Hall of Fame safety Terry Kinard patrolled the secondary in 1982. McDaniel was a first-team All-American by the Football Writers Association and a second team selection by five other services as a junior. He is a top candidate for the 2010 Jim Thorpe Award.

The native of Tallahassee, FL led the ACC and ranked third in the nation in interceptions with eight last year, tied for the most in school history. He had 102 tackles to rank fourth on the team and was the only player in college football last year with at least eight interceptions and 100 tackles.

McDaniel was at his best in Clemson's thrilling win at Miami (FL) when he had two interceptions, including one that he returned for a touchdown in the Tigers 40-37 overtime victory over the number-eight ranked Hurricanes. He was named National Defensive Back of the Week by the Bednarik Award Committee for that performance.

Joining McDaniel in the starting secondary will be Marcus Gilchrist. The senior had 107 tackles as a starting safety last year, second best on the team and most among returning Tigers in 2010. He had four double figure tackle games, including 10 against TCU, who scored a season low 14 points against Clemson's defense.

Gilchrist will move to a cornerback position this fall, an example of his all-around abilities. He has played cornerback previously in his career and with the play of freshman Rashard Hall, allows defensive coordinator Kevin Steele to move Gilchrist.

Hall had six interceptions and 63 tackles at a safety position last year. He started seven of the 14 games when he was named a first-team Freshman All-American. Hall had a streak of four straight games with an interception last year, tied for the longest streak in Clemson history.

Clemson lost perhaps its top cornerback duo in 20 years when Chris Chancellor and Crezdon Butler graduated after last year. They combined for 20 career interceptions and 85 passes defended over the last four years. It was not a coincidence that Clemson ranked in the top 20 in the nation in pass defense each of the last four years.

The leading candidate to join Gilchrist as a starting cornerback would appear to be senior Byron Maxwell, one of the top tacklers on the Clemson team. Maxwell had 36 stops last year and added a pair of interceptions as a reserve cornerback. He was also the top special teams tackler on the team with 15.

Other returning lettermen at the cornerback position are Coty Sensabaugh, who had 14 tackles and an interception, and Xavier Brewer, who had 15 stops in 2009. Spencer Adams, also an All-America hurdler on the Clemson track team, will be a factor at cornerback.

Other candidates for playing time at safety are Carlton Lewis, who had six stops in nine games last year, Jonathan Meeks, who had six tackles and an interception, and two-time letterman Kantrell Brown.

Jarvis Jenkins and Brandon Thompson return as starters on the interior defensive line. They are in their third season working together. Jenkins was the top tackler among Clemson defensive linemen last year with 69 stops, including 11 tackles for loss and seven quarterback pressures. Thompson is a real run stopper and had 50 tackles last year in his 13 games as a starter.

Clemson has great depth at the defensive tackle positions. Miguel Chavis is actually a co-starter along with Thompson at nose guard after an outstanding spring practice performance. Chavis had 28 tackles and four quarterback pressures last year.

Rennie Moore is another experienced tackle who was productive last year. He had 22 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss when he played in 13 games. Tyler Shatley is a red-shirt freshman tackle and Josh Watson is a first-year freshman who enrolled at Clemson in January.

DaQuan Bowers is a returning starter at defensive end. The top-rated player in the nation out of high school by ESPN.com, Bowers has had some injury problems his first two years. He had 58 tackles in 2009 even though he missed two games completely and played sparingly in three others due to injury. Still he had 11 tackles for loss and three sacks to go with 12 quarterback pressures.

Malliciah Goodman and Andre Branch are two more talented defensive ends who will be key to Clemson's point prevention unit. Goodman was a freshman All-ACC selection by Rivals.com and had 31 tackles and five tackles for loss as a first-year freshman in 2009. Branch might have been the most improved player on the Clemson defense as he had 46 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and a pair of sacks.

Brandon Maye is the most experienced of the Clemson linebacker corps. He had 103 tackles as a sophomore to rank third on the Clemson team. He had seven tackles for loss and three sacks to go with 15 quarterback pressures. Maye also made first-team All-Academic All-ACC in 2009, his sophomore year. He will see time as a weakside and middle linebacker.

Scotty Cooper is a three-year returning letterman at a linebacker position and will be a candidate for a starting linebacker position. Cooper has starting experience over the last three years and is a veteran of 37 games and six starts. He had 16 tackles last season.

Jonathan Willard and Corico Hawkins are two young linebackers who have been productive in their limited playing time so far. Hawkins had 19 tackles last season, including eight in the win over Coastal Carolina in just 18 snaps and he is listed as the starter at middle linebacker after spring practice. He also had six tackles in the bowl win over Kentucky when Maye was injured. Willard had 10 tackles, including three tackles for loss in his 32 snaps on defense last year and he is listed as a co-starter at weakside linebacker.

The surprise of the spring practice session was Quandon Christian, who entered spring practice third on the depth chart and left those 15 practices first team at strong-side linebacker. Daniel Andrews is a two-year letter winner with experience at linebacker as well.

Special Teams

Clemson returns its starting punter, starting kicker, starting snapper and starting holder. But, Swinney says the special teams might be the area on the team where he has the most questions. "We need to be more consistent in the kicking game in 2009, that is something we will examine very closely in the Spring and the preseason practices."

Richard Jackson made 20-31 field goals last year, including eight that were made from at least 40 yards out. He made 6-6 field goals in the win over Boston College to win the Leather Helmet Award as the game's most valuable player. He was the only player in the nation to make six field goals in a game in 2009. He made three field goals of at least 50 yards, a first in Clemson history in one season.

Matt Skinner returns as the starting snapper. The sophomore from Jacksonville, FL handled every snap in 2009. Mike Wade returns as the holder. Spencer Benton handled the kickoffs last year and did a solid job. Opponents' average start was just their own 24-yard-line.

Dawson Zimmerman is the returning starter at punter. Zimmerman had a 39.1 average on 55 punts last year and had 19 punts inside the 20. He had a solid individual net figure of 36 yards per punt.

Clemson had one of the most dynamic return games in the nation last year thanks to the performance of Spiller and Ford who had two of the top 40 times at the NFL Combine last February. The Tigers ranked in the top 10 in the nation in kickoff returns and top 20 in punt returns and Clemson had an average starting field position advantage of 13 yards in 2009 after kickoffs.

Clemson does have a couple of returning players who have experience in the return game. Andre Ellington and Marcus Gilchrist are two veteran players will experience in the return game, but a freshman could also move into that area.

Clemson will face seven 2009 bowl teams, including four on the road on its 2010 football schedule. The schedule includes Clemson's first regular season game with Auburn since 1971 and the Tigers first trip to North Carolina since 2002.

All 12 games on the schedule will be played on Saturdays. It will be the first time since 2001 that Clemson has played all of its games on Saturdays. All game times will be announced at a later date. All special home game designations will be announced at a later date.

Clemson opens the schedule with consecutive non-conference home games against North Texas and Presbyterian. It will be Clemson's first game with North Texas and the first game against Presbyterian since 1957. The two schools opened the season on an annual basis from 1930 to 1957 when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard served as Clemson's head coach.

The Tigers will play the Tigers on September 18 when Clemson travels to Auburn. It is the first of a two-game home-and-home series between the two schools. Auburn will play at Clemson in 2011. The last time the two teams met the contest went to overtime in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl. Auburn won that game 23-20 in the Georgia Dome. Auburn is coached by former Clemson graduate assistant Gene Chizik.

Clemson will have an open date on September 25, then play eight consecutive conference games between October 2 and November 20. It is the first time Clemson has played eight consecutive ACC games since the 2003 season, but the first time in school history Clemson has played eight ACC games over an eight-week period.

Clemson opens its ACC schedule on October 2 when Miami (FL) comes to Clemson. It is the latest start to the ACC schedule for Clemson since 1982 when Clemson played its first league game on October 9 at Virginia. Clemson and Miami have met as ACC foes three times and all three have been decided in overtime, including Clemson's 40-37 victory in Miami last year. In fact the road team has won each of the last three meetings in at least one overtime.

Clemson will have its first ACC road game at North Carolina on October 9. It will be just the second meeting between the two schools since 2003 and Clemson's first trip to Chapel Hill since 2002. Clemson has won each of the last three meetings and five of the last six dating to 1999.

Clemson has a two-game home stand on October 16 and October 23 against the only two ACC teams to beat the Tigers last year. Maryland will be the foe at Death Valley on October 16 and Georgia Tech will come to Clemson on October 23. The Yellow Jackets beat Clemson twice last year, 30-27 in the regular season in Atlanta and 39-34 in the ACC Championship game in Tampa. It will be the fourth game against Georgia Tech within the first 35 games of Dabo Swinney's Clemson coaching career.

The Tigers will travel to Boston College on October 30 for the annual battle for the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy. Clemson has defeated the Eagles each of the last two years. The 2008 win in Boston was Dabo Swinney's first victory as Clemson head coach.

Clemson will play its final ACC home game against NC State on November 6. Clemson has beaten NC State six consecutive years, Clemson's longest winning streak in history over the Wolfpack.

The Tigers must play their last two ACC games on the road, at Florida State on November 13, then at Wake Forest on November 20. Clemson has beaten the Seminoles five of the last seven years, but just once at Tallahassee since 1989. The Tigers have won eight of the last 11 games over Wake Forest, but the Demon Deacons have won three of the last four in Winston-Salem.

Clemson concludes the regular season on November 27, the Saturday after Thanksgiving, when South Carolina travels to Clemson. Clemson has won six of the last eight over the Gamecocks, but South Carolina won last year's meeting in Columbia. Clemson has won five of the last six in the series played at Clemson.

Press Box

There are two levels to the press box at Memorial Stadium, located in the center of the club level of the South stands (Clemson sideline). The first level contains the photo deck, a photographer work room, the outside public address system, stadium operations, and security, along with booths for field telephones, radio networks, and Clemson Athletic Department officials. The second level is for the print media, with seats for 110 members. This level houses Clemson's buffet along with the work room.

Press Entrance to Memorial Stadium

The press parking lot (for media who cover Clemson on a regular basis) at Memorial Stadium is at the football practice fields. Other parking is available for out-of-town media (contact Tim Bourret). Enter the gate and proceed to the elevator.

All media will-call credentials can be picked up at Gate 16 at Memorial Stadium. That gate is outside the entrance to the press box.

At age 40, Dabo Swinney is the youngest head coach in the ACC and one of the youngest in the country, but he handled his first full season as Clemson's head coach like an old veteran. During the 2009 season, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was second in the voting for ACC Coach-of-the-Year and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among all FBS coaches in their first full year behind Oregon's Chip Kelly. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers' to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The Tigers reached the nine-win mark playing a schedule that included four games against top-15 opponents, just the second year in school history (1999) that Clemson played four games against teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll.

Clemson was 1-3 in those games, but the three losses were by a combined 12 points (three points to Georgia Tech, four points to TCU, and five points to Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship game). The Tigers' three FBS non-conference opponents had a combined record of 29-10 in 2009. Clemson gave #6 TCU one of its stiffest tests in a 14-10 Horned Frog victory on September 26.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak at midseason, a streak that saw the Tigers score at least 34 points in every game, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated #8 Miami (FL) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in school history.

That was the second of six straight wins, the longest winning streak for the Clemson program in four years. The streak also included a 40-24 nationally-televvised win over Florida State and Bobby Bowden, the Hall of Fame coach who is second in victories in FBS history. The winning streak brought Clemson to a #15 national ranking in the AP poll after the Atlantic Division clinching victory over Virginia on November 21.

The Tigers had success on offense, defense, and special teams during the 2009 season. The Tigers were 28th in the nation and third in the ACC in scoring offense (31.1), while the defense was 20th in total defense (314.3) and seventh in pass defense (162.8). Clemson was in a tie for fifth in the country in interceptions (21) as well.

Clemson added a school-record six kick returns for touchdowns in 2009, four on kickoff returns and two on punt returns.

The main reason Clemson was so outstanding on special teams was the play of college football's most dynamic player, C.J. Spiller. The Tiger running back was named MVP of the ACC in 2009 and was a consensus first-team All-American. He had five kick returns for touchdowns during the 2009 season, an all-time Clemson record, and established the NCAA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a career with seven. He was also the only FBS player to score at least one touchdown in every game in 2009.

Overall, the Tigers held down three positions on the All-ACC First-Team and five spots on the second team.

Only Virginia Tech had more representatives.

Swinney became Clemson's interim head coach on October 13, 2008 when Tommy Bowden stepped down after guiding the program for nearly 10 seasons. Then on December 1, 2008, the "interim" tag was removed, as he took over on a full-time basis as the Tigers' 25th head coach. He had been Clemson's assistant head coach for two years and had been in charge of the wide receivers since 2003.

Swinney, who had never been a head coach prior to the 2008 season, led Clemson to a 4-3 record to close 2008. That mark included four victories in the last five regular-season games, with the only loss at #24 Florida State. That 4-1 record to end the regular season tied for the best mark in the ACC for that time period. Four of his six regular-season opponents were later bowl participants. His 4-3 record included a 2-1 road record, wins over Boston College and Virginia.

Clemson student body to a practice, and nearly 1,000 students showed up. He spoke to the group and actually allowed some students to participate during practice, as they were selected to attempt a field goal, punt against a live rush, and field a punt. He also took the entire team to the Greenville Children's Hospital for a visit with young men and women fighting cancer.

He has continued his community involvement through his foundation. His foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead the remainder of the season.

The Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award evaluates coaching performances in terms of coaching excellence, sportsmanship, integrity, academic excellence, and community commitment. It is easy to see why Swinney was a national finalist for that award in his first full season as head coach.

Swinney's first victory as a head coach took place in his first-ever road game on November 1. Despite committing four turnovers and trailing in the fourth quarter, his troops rallied for a 27-21 win, giving Clemson its first win over the Eagles since 1958. It also came against the eventual ACC Atlantic Division champion.

The Tigers suffered a 41-27 defeat at #24 Florida State a week later, but they rebounded to trounce Duke 31-7 at Memorial Stadium by outgaining the Blue Devils 466-168 under Swinney, who also served as offensive coordinator during the second half of 2008. Clemson showed its road prowess the following weekend by claiming a 13-3 victory at Virginia and veteran Cavaliers Head Coach Al Groh.

Rival South Carolina awaited for the final regular-season game. Against one of the SEC's best defenses, the Tigers used a balanced attack (184 rushing yards, 199 passing yards) to top the Gamecocks 31-14 at Memorial Stadium. Clemson also had four interceptions against Steve Spurrier's offense and held it to just 22-47 passing for 212 yards. The following week, the Tigers accepted an invitation to play in the Gator Bowl against Nebraska, a game in which the Cornhuskers were victorious by a score of 26-21.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his seven years, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the final polls four times and totaled 10 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to re-organize his staff, and regroup his team and Clemson Nation in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Prior to the game against the Yellow Jackets, Swinney decided to have his team depart buses outside the Lot 5 parking lot near the WestZone at Memorial Stadium and experience the gameday atmosphere. Dressed in jackets and ties, the team was embraced by thousands of Tiger fans who stood 10 deep for the 200-yard march to the stadium. It was the centerpiece of his "All In" theme in his first week as head coach. It is a tradition that will continue in the future.

In his second week as head coach, an off-week, he invited the Florida State (4), Miami (FL) (2), and Tennessee (1), during his tenure in Tigertown.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches five of the last six years. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He coached a First-Team All-ACC wideout every year from 2004-07 (three different players), also an unprecedented feat at Clemson.

In 2004 and 2005, he coached the ACC reception champion (Airese Currie (2004), Chansi Stuckey (2005)). It was the first time Clemson had two different players lead the ACC in receptions in consecutive years. In 2007, Aaron Kelly led the ACC in yards, giving Swinney an ACC receiving king three out of four years. Stuckey earned First-Team All-ACC honors in back-to-back years, a first for a Tiger wideout in 25 years.

The play of Swinney's wide receivers was a big reason Clemson led the ACC in total offense, rushing offense, and scoring offense during the 2006 season, just the second time an ACC team led the conference in all three categories during the previous 25 seasons. The Tigers also led the league and set school records for yards per play (6.5) and touchdowns (55).

In 2007, he coached Kelly, a First-Team All-ACC selection who led the league in receiving yards per game and touchdown catches (11). He also finished second in receptions per game with a school-record 88 catches, tied for the second-highest total in ACC history. His 11 touchdown catches were a Tiger record as well.

Kelly is Clemson's and the ACC's career reception leader with 232 catches. He also owns the school touchdown reception record with 20. The previous record of 18 was held by Glenn Smith, who established the record in 1951.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the #5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated #2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position on October 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet" because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in 1989. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl, and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC Championship game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant coach from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December of 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February of 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. He was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC Western Division title and make an Outback Bowl appearance. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends under Head Coach Mike DuBose.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship game. Wide receiver Freddie Milons was the game MVP.

Since 1997, he has had 17 former players either drafted or sign free-agent contracts with NFL teams. The list includes Currie, Derrick Hamilton, Kevin Youngblood, Stuckey, and Milons, an All-American at Alabama.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with at least 10 wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99), and five SEC Western Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach. He has coached the #2 receiver at Alabama (Milons) along with the #1 (Kelly) and #2 (Hamilton) receivers in Tiger history.

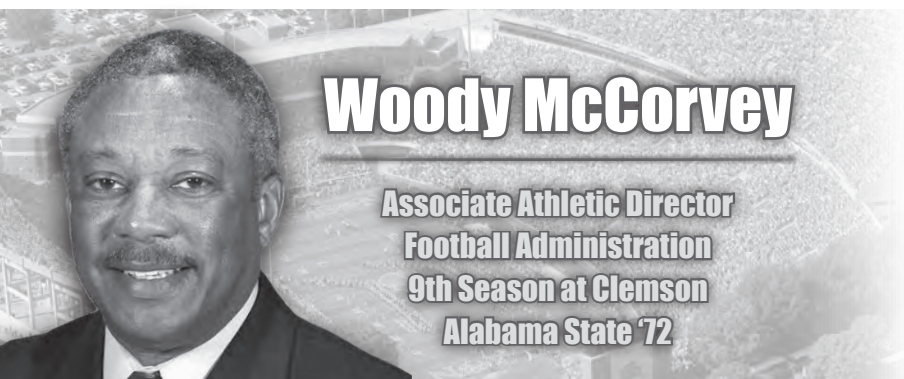

From April of 2001 through February of 2003, Swinney was in private business in Alabama. He married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (11), Drew (9), and Clay (6).

Woody McCorvey

Associate Athletic Director
Football Administration
9th Season at Clemson
Alabama State '72

Woody McCorvey returned to Clemson after 20 years to become Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration on Dabo Swinney's first staff. McCorvey was Swinney's position coach during his playing days at Alabama and served as a wide receivers and tight ends coach on Danny Ford's Tiger staff from 1983-89.

McCorvey serves as the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administration. He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices.

His return had a positive effect on the program in 2009 when Clemson won the Atlantic Division of the ACC for the first time, and finished the season in the AP Top 25.

McCorvey supervises the football budget and works with the staff at Vickery Hall to oversee the team's academic progress. He also makes speaking engagements and represents the football staff at various meetings and functions.

"He is my national security advisor," said Swinney. "My experience with him dates to my days as a player at Alabama when he was my position coach. He coached at Clemson in the 1980s under Coach Ford and knows all about our winning tradition. He has been a part of 11 conference championship teams in his impressive career."

McCorvey, 59, worked seven years at Clemson between 1983-89. With McCorvey coaching the tight ends from 1983-85 and the wide receivers from 1986-89, Clemson posted a 60-19-3 record and won three ACC titles. During that time, the Tigers were invited to the 1985 Independence Bowl, the 1986 and 1989 Gator Bowls, and the 1988 and 1989 Citrus Bowls. Clemson posted a 10-2 record in each of his last three seasons under Ford. Among the student-athletes he recruited were future Pro Bowlers Donnell Woolford and Chester McGlockton. He also coached future NFL players Keith Jennings and K.D. Dunn.

McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. Overall, he had 36 years of experience as a football coach. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career as well.

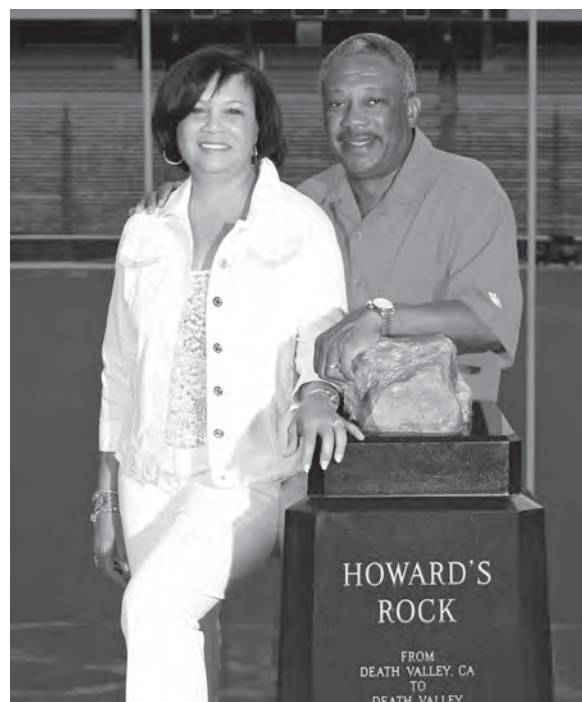

From 1990-08, he coached in the SEC every year, including each of the last five at Mississippi State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in addition to coaching the quarterbacks. He was a big reason the Bulldogs won eight games, including wins over Auburn, Alabama, and Mississippi, in 2007. He also coached running back Anthony Dixon, who was a sixth-round draft pick by the 49ers in 2010, and Kyle Love, a free-agent signer by the Patriots.

McCorvey coached at Tennessee for five years (1999-03). With him heading the running game, the Volunteers had a 46-14 record. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta Bowl, 2001 Cotton Bowl, 2002 Citrus Bowl, and 2002 and 2003 Peach Bowls. Tennessee won three consecutive New Year's Day Bowl games from 2000-02 as well.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having an outstanding rushing attack. The Volunteers led the SEC in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. His work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing yards (1,464) in 2001. One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th in the nation in rushing yards (1,314). Another of his protégés was Jamal Lewis, who is in the top five on the Tennessee career rushing list and was the #5 overall pick of the 2000 NFL draft. He has gone on to an All-Pro career in the NFL.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1998 under current Tiger Associate Head Coach Brad Scott.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at Alabama from 1990-97. He served seven seasons as its wide receivers coach and the 1996 campaign as offensive coordinator. He was the assistant head coach in 1997 as well.

Alabama had five top-25 final rankings in his tenure in Tuscaloosa, including three seasons in the top five. The Crimson Tide won the 1992 national title with McCorvey serving as wide receivers coach and Swinney as one of his student-athletes. That season culminated with a 34-13 win over heavily-favored Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl. Current Clemson Assistant Coach Danny Pearman was also on that staff.

During the 1990-96 era, Alabama posted a 70-16-1 record and played six bowl games. With McCorvey at the controls of the offense in 1996, Alabama finished 10-3, including a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Alabama's players flourished under his guidance. Serving as offensive coordinator, running back Shaun Alexander established many school records and later went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Seattle Seahawks. In 1993, David Palmer established school records for catches and receiving yards along with earning first-team All-America accolades. Palmer was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish in history for an Alabama player.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M and helped that program to the #6 rushing offense in Division II in 1981 after finishing 11th in the nation in scoring offense the previous year. McCorvey began his collegiate coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978.

McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint (1972-77) at Tate High School in Pensacola, FL. A quarterback at Alabama State from 1968-71, McCorvey earned his bachelor's degree from Alabama State in 1972 and a master's degree from West Florida in 1977.

In November of 2010, McCorvey will be inducted into the Atmore, AL Hall of Fame. The Atmore, AL native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son Marlon.

Brad Scott

Associate Head Coach
Offensive Guards & Centers
12th Season at Clemson
South Florida '79

- In his 12th season as an assistant coach at Clemson; he has worked on the offensive side of the ball each of the previous 11 years.
- In his 11 seasons at Clemson, the Tigers have been bowl eligible all 11 years and have played in 10 bowl games. The Tigers have set over 100 school records on offense since he has been with the program.
- Has been the offensive coordinator on two (2001,03) of the top-four offenses in Tiger history.
- Has coached at least one All-ACC player each of the last five years. That includes two first-team selections in 2007 (Chris McDuffie, Barry Richardson). Both players earned All-America honors, the first time two offensive linemen on the same team were All-Americans. Richardson was a two-time First-Team All-ACC selection as well. Thomas Austin earned third-team All-America honors in 2010.

- As offensive coordinator at Clemson in 2001, Woodrow Dantzler became the first player in NCAA history to total 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in one season.
- The 2006 offensive line paved the way for James Davis and C.J. Spiller to gain over 2,000 combined rushing yards, a big reason Clemson was fifth in the nation in rushing that year.
- The 2009 season was his 25th in college coaching as a full-time staff member and he helped the Tigers to their first Atlantic Division title and a top-25 final ranking.
- Served as an assistant coach at Florida State from 1983-93. He was on the 1993 staff that won the national title. He was the offensive coordinator of that record-setting team that featured Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward.
- Florida State was 10-0-1 in bowl games with him on the staff. The Seminoles were also 44-6 when he was the offensive coordinator.

- Youngest coordinator in Clemson history at age 30 when he took over in 2009. He is still the youngest coordinator in the ACC.
- Served as Clemson's recruiting coordinator from 2006-08.
- Joined the Clemson offensive staff as tight ends coach in 2006. That year, the Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing offense, and scoring offense. Clemson was also fifth in the nation in rushing that season.
- Served as an assistant coach at S.C. State in 2005 and helped that program to a 9-2 record, including 7-1 in the conference. S.C. State was 12th in the nation in rushing (236 yards per game), 15th in passing efficiency, and 17th in scoring (34 points per game).
- Helped the Bulldogs to the fourth-best turnover margin in the country in 2005, as the team committed just 11 turnovers after losing 33 in 2004. He was elevated to the offensive coordinator position after the 2005 season, but he never coached in that role due to his hiring at Clemson.

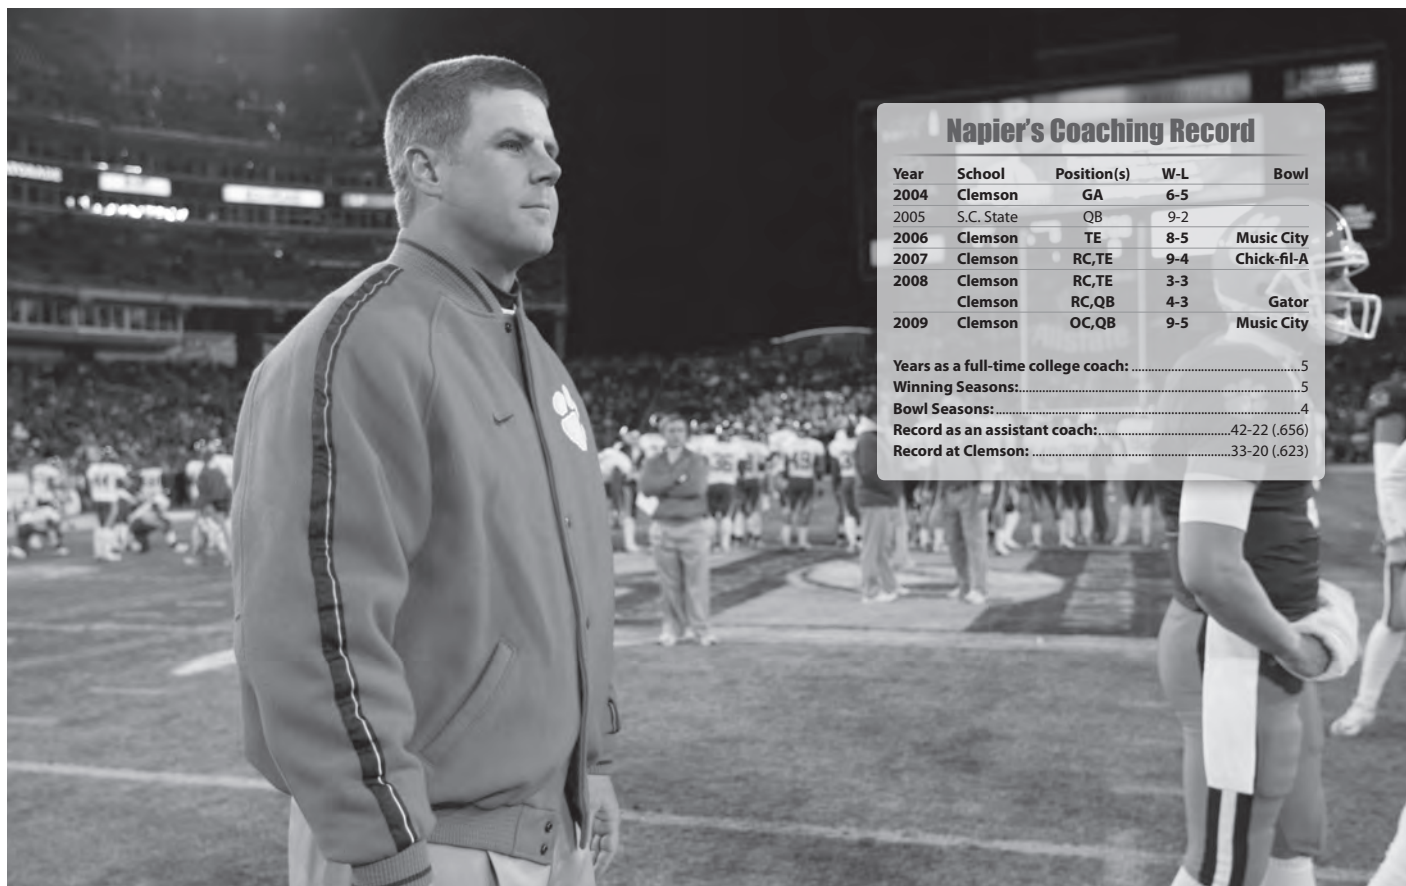

- Served as a graduate assistant at Clemson during a nine-win season in 2003 and during the 2004 season.
- Lettered four times (1999-02) at Furman and was a two-time captain as a starting quarterback. He holds the Paladin career record for completion percentage (64.8) and is third in school history in passing yards (4,247). He also set the school single-season record with 2,475 passing yards and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award (FCS National Player-of-the-Year) during the 2002 season.

Danny Pearman

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Tackles & Tight Ends
3rd Season at Clemson
Clemson '87

- In 2009, coached Clemson's tight ends, who combined for 54 receptions, most-ever for the position in school history. Coached first-team All-ACC tight end Michael Palmer and second-team All-ACC offensive tackle Chris Hairston.
- Helped Clemson to an Atlantic Division title and top-25 AP ranking in his first year as a full-time coach.
- Joined Clemson's staff in December of 2008 and coached in the 2009 Gator Bowl. He joined a small group of people who have played for Clemson in a bowl game and later coached the Tigers in a bowl game. He donned the orange & white during the 1986 Gator Bowl and 1987 Citrus Bowl.

- One of two Clemson graduates on the coaching staff; Jeff Scott is the other. He played tight end on Clemson's 1986 and 1987 ACC Championship teams, then he served as a graduate assistant coach on the Tigers' 1988 ACC Championship team.
- In 19 years as a full-time Division I head coach, his teams have played 15 bowl games. Including three years as a graduate assistant coach, it is 18 bowl games in 22 seasons.
- His coaching career got off to a great start with an eight-year tenure at Alabama. In just his second year as a full-time coach, he directed the offensive tackles and served as special teams coordinator on Alabama's National Championship team. The Crimson Tide defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to claim the title.
- Alabama made six bowl appearances in his eight years on the staff. The Crimson Tide won the SEC Western Division five times in those eight years.
- He served on the same Alabama staff with current Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney from 1993-97.
- After eight seasons at Alabama, he moved to Virginia Tech, where he worked eight years under Head Coach Frank Beamer. The Hokies went to eight bowl games during his eight seasons with the program.

- Virginia Tech played Florida State for the National Championship in the Sugar Bowl in 1999, so Pearman has coached in the National Championship game in the Sugar Bowl with two different schools.
- Coached tight ends at Virginia Tech and was also a special teams assistant. He coached two tight ends who later played in the NFL.
- Coached at North Carolina in 2006, Duke in 2007, and Maryland in 2008, so he is very familiar with the ACC. He helped Maryland to the Humanitarian Bowl in 2008.

Dan Brooks

Defensive Tackles
2nd Season at Clemson
Western Carolina '76

- Helped Clemson to an Atlantic Division title and top-25 final ranking in his first year with the program. The Tigers ranked 12th nationally in tackles for loss and Brooks' defensive linemen had a lot to do with that success.
- Clemson was in the top 25 in the nation in seven defensive categories in 2009.
- Has coached 316 games as a full-time college assistant, more than any other active member of the Tiger coaching staff.
- Coached the previous 15 years at Tennessee under Head Coach Phillip Fulmer. He coached in 13 bowl games during those 15 years and was part of eight teams that won at least 10 games. The Volunteers finished in the top 25 of the polls in 12 of those seasons, including six top-10 finishes. Tennessee also finished in top 10 of the AP poll five straight years (1995-99).

- Tennessee's defense finished third in the nation in total defense, allowing just 263.5 yards per game, in 2008. The Volunteers were also 10th in scoring defense and 12th in rushing defense.
- Coached first-round draft pick Albert Haynesworth, now the highest-paid defensive player in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins. He also coached first-round draft picks Shaun Ellis, Justin Harell, and John Henderson. Henderson won the 2000 Outland Trophy.
- Served as Tennessee's recruiting coordinator from 1999-02.
- Coached on the 1998 Tennessee staff that won the national title with a 13-0 record. That team had six wins over top-25 teams and gave up just five rushing touchdowns.
- Tennessee won back-to-back SEC titles in 1997 and 1998.
- In 1998, he was named the SEC's top defensive line coach.

Don Munson

Director of Creative Media Services
1st Season • Appalachian State '84

Don Munson in his first year with the Clemson Athletic Department in a full-time capacity. He is a familiar name to Clemson fans because of his involvement with the Clemson radio network for the last 16 years.

Munson took over the new position of Creative Media Services Director in July, 2010. He has department wide responsibilities, with an emphasis on football. He supervises the football recruiting website and social media sites, provides video features for ClemsonTigers.com, authors articles for various Clemson publications and websites, and serves as the Master of Ceremonies for the Prowl & Growl meetings in the spring. He will also continue to serve as the host of the Clemson football and basketball coaches radio call in program, "Tiger Calls," and provide play by play commentary on various Clemson Olympic sports.

Munson has covered Clemson athletics since 1994, when he first joined the network as the network's football pre-game, halftime and 5th Quarter host. In 1995, he moved into a full time position with the Clemson Sports Network as an on-air host and affiliate relations manager. In 1997, he was named operations manager and became part of the basketball broadcasts as a pre-game, halftime, and locker room reporter.

In 2003, Munson rejoined the radio network as host of the Tiger Tailgate Show and 5th Quarter Show. When Jim Phillips passed away in September of 2003, Munson assumed the duties as host of Tiger Calls, play-by-play for women's basketball and baseball.

Munson is a 1984 graduate of Appalachian State with a B.S. degree in communications. He was the play-by-play voice at Appalachian State from 1984-91. In 1993, he served a season as the play-by-play voice of Western Carolina and in 1994 was the voice of the UNC Asheville men's basketball broadcasts.

Married on May 26, 1984, Munson and his wife Elizabeth have one child, Michelle, who turns 19 in August.

Daniel Bassett

Director of Football Programs
2nd Season • Tennessee '01

Daniel Bassett is in his second year as director of football programs at Clemson. He is in charge of on-campus meals and housing, maintaining the football recruiting database, and community outreach.

Prior to being hired as director of football programs in July of 2008, Bassett worked as a student volunteer and later in office administration from 2003-05.

He received his undergraduate degree in broadcasting from Tennessee in 2001. He then came to Clemson, where he earned his master's degree in professional communication in 2005.

The Birmingham, AL native was born November 23, 1978 and is single.

Mike Dooley

Director of High School Relations & Player Personnel
6th Season • Furman '98

Mike Dooley is in his sixth year with the Tiger football program and serves as director of high school relations & player personnel. He is responsible for maintaining and improving relationships between high school coaches and Clemson.

Prior to being hired at his current position, he served two years (2005,06) as a video graduate assistant (defense) and two years (2007,08) as a graduate assistant coach (offense) at Clemson. Dooley also served as interim tight ends coach in 2008 when Dabo Swinney was hired as head coach at midseason.

Dooley worked as an assistant coach at Greenville (SC) High School from 1998-04 before coming to Clemson. His responsibilities included defensive coordinator from 2000-04 and assistant head coach in 2004. In his last three years, Greenville High had a 33-4 record, including a 12-1 mark in 2003.

Dooley (35) is a native of Toccoa, GA. He lettered as a defensive end at Furman from 1993-1995, but he missed his senior season due to injury. He had a sack against Clemson in Memorial Stadium in 1994. Furman reached the Division I-AA playoffs during his final season with the Paladins. He was also an Academic Honor Roll member and received his degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 1998.

Assistant AD • Player Relations & External Affairs
2nd Season • Clemson '84

Jeff Davis is in his second year as assistant athletic director for player relations & external affairs within the Clemson football program. During the previous five years, he served as an assistant athletic director for fundraising, where he helped raise funds for the WestZone Club at Memorial Stadium. He also served as the primary spokesman for Clemson University's Call Me Mister Program and served as director of that program from 1999-03.

Davis was an All-America linebacker from 1978-81 who captained the Tigers during their 1981 National Championship run. "The Judge" registered a then-Clemson-record 175 tackles on the 1981 defense. That same season, he became just the third defensive player in ACC history to be named league MVP. Davis registered 14 tackles as Clemson topped Nebraska 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim its first national title.

He was named to Clemson's Centennial Team in 1996. In 1995, he became the fourth member of the Clemson Ring of Honor. Then in 2002, he was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team.

In 2007, he was accorded the highest honor attainable for a college football player when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Davis has made a name for himself outside of the Clemson community. A fifth-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 1982, he played six productive seasons in the NFL. During his time as a professional, he also completed his remaining coursework and graduated from Clemson in 1984.

In 1999, he returned to Clemson as field director of Call Me Mister. It seeks to recruit, train, certify, and secure employment for African-American males as elementary teachers in the state's public schools. In 2001, he was awarded $100,000 for the program from Oprah Winfrey's "Angel Network."

He is president of Goal Line Stand, which supports young people as adults as they seek to remain committed to values that shape and govern their lives. The ordained pastor lives in Clemson with his wife Joni and their six children.

Andy Johnston

Associate AD • Football Operations
14th Season • Clemson '79

Andy Johnston is in his 14th year with the Tiger football program and currently serves as associate athletic director for football operations. His responsibilities include managing the program's day-to-day operations. In his 14 years, Clemson has gone to 12 bowl games. Although this is his 14th year with the football program, he has been involved with the Clemson athletic department for 28 years. From 1983-97, he was the winningest women's tennis coach in school history.

In those 15 years, Johnston guided his squads to five consecutive ACC titles (1983-87), 12 top-25 finishes, and six NCAA Tournaments. He was ACC Coach-of-the-Year for the fourth time and Southeast Region Coach-of-the-Year for the second time in 1993. Seven players he coached at Clemson were named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002.

Johnston had a 254-160 Clemson record and 263-167 career mark. He was the coach at Furman in 1982 before coming to Clemson. His best season at Clemson was his rookie year when the team had a 30-5 record and finished #7 in the polls. That team won all nine flights of the ACC Tourney, the only tennis team in Tiger history to do that. He coached former Lady Tiger Gigi Fernandez, who was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame in 2005.

Johnston played for Clemson on the hardcourt and earned his degree in administrative management in 1979. He then served as the assistant men's tennis coach during the 1980 season.

Johnston is a native of Summerville, SC. He is married to the former Sophie Woorons. He has a daughter Kiera (20) and a son Noah (3). A second daughter Caylynn passed away in 2008.

Danny Poole

Director of Sports Medicine
10th Season • Western Carolina '79

Danny Poole is in his 10th season as Clemson's director of sports medicine, but he is a veteran of more than 27 years working in the Tiger athletic training facility. He supervises the athletic training needs of all student-athletes, but his primary area of emphasis is with the football program.

He has 30 years of full-time experience in the athletic training field.

Poole served as head athletic trainer for the Carolina Chargers of the American Football Association in 1979. In 1980, he became an assistant trainer at Memphis. During his career as a full-time assistant there, he earned his master's degree in health education. He came to Clemson in 1984 as an assistant under Clemson trainer Fred Hoover.

A 1979 Western Carolina graduate, Poole earned a bachelor's degree in health & physical education. He was student trainer for the Catamounts for four years. He was published in the NATA Journal in 1979, "The D.P. Method for Blisters" as a student at Western Carolina.

Poole was honored in 2001 by his peers with the Athletic Trainers Service Award. The award is presented by the National Athletic Trainers Association to role models who are future leaders of the training profession. The Charlotte, NC native is married to the former Beth Morgan. The couple has two daughters, Jacqui Elaine (23) and Abby Blair (21).

Alphonso Smith

Director of Equipment
11th Season • Clemson '91

Alphonso Smith is in his 15th season at Clemson, and he is in his 11th year overseeing all equipment operations. Smith served as a basketball manager during his undergraduate and graduate years at Clemson from 1985-92. He was a member of the staff of Clemson's only ACC regular-season championship team in history (1990). Smith also served as a graduate assistant in 1992.

Smith worked as assistant equipment supervisor at Memphis for three years. He was responsible for assisting the football program and was in charge of men's and women's basketball, women's golf, and men's and women's track & field.

He is a 1991 graduate of Clemson, as he earned his degree in social science secondary education. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and serves as newsletter editor for District III. He was named Equipment Manager-of-the-Year for District III in 2006-07 as well. Smith is married to the former Kim Teel of Omaha, NE. The couple has a son, Andru Christopher.

James F. Barker

President
Clemson '70

Jim Barker has worn nearly every hat possible in his almost five decades as a member of the Clemson family – student, athlete, alumnus, teacher, dean, parent, fan and president.

Of these varied roles, the most important was as a student.

"I often tell people I learned everything from plumbing to poetry in architecture school, and I use every bit of that knowledge as president of Clemson University," Barker has said.

A 1970 Clemson graduate, Barker was named president in 1999 with a mandate from the Board of Trustees to lead Clemson into the top ranks of American universities. At his inaugural address in April 2000, he said: "I am convinced that there is no university in America stronger than Clemson when we are 'One Clemson.' A united Clemson is unstoppable."

During the "One Clemson" decade that followed, the university harnessed the competitive, determined spirit of the Clemson family to transform itself from a respected state institution into one of the nation's finest public universities.

Clemson climbed from 38 to 22 among public universities in the 2010 US News guide to colleges, and has been recognized for value, affordability and return on investment by Kiplinger's and Smart Money magazine.

During the decade undergraduate applications soared, Ph.D. enrollment doubled, research awards topped $1.25 billion and more than 140 grants and contracts and 60 gifts of $1 million or more were received. Despite severe cuts in its permanent, basic state appropriations, Clemson protected its academic core and competed successfully for the lion's share of the state's highest-achieving students, the Palmetto Fellows, and for tens of millions in state funding for endowed chairs and research infrastructure.

Clemson attracts top students and faculty. Fifty percent of the 2009 freshman class graduated in the top 10% of their high school classes, and 31 Clemson faculty members received prestigious National Science Foundation CAREER awards during the decade.

The University provides an unmatched educational experience – intellectual development – for students, and research-driven economic development for the state of South Carolina.

Last year's highlights also include...

...a $45 million grant from the U.S. Department of Energy, the largest in Clemson history, to fund a wind energy test facility at the Restoration Institute in North Charleston. This project puts South Carolina at the center of a growing U.S. offshore wind energy industry.

...two national summits on clean energy and creating jobs in the green economy, sponsored by the Restoration Institute and held in Greenville at CU-ICAR (Clemson University International Center for Automotive Research)

...a second place finish (behind Brown University) by Clemson undergraduate students in the national College Quiz Bowl.

...the awarding of Clemson's first Ph.D. in automotive engineering. New partners at CU-ICAR include electric bus manufacturer Proterra, and Sage Automotive, a high-performance fabric manufacturer that was formerly Milliken's automotive fabric division.

...the opening of Clemson at the Falls in downtown Greenville, which will house Clemson's MBA and other programs of the College of Business and Behavioral Science to support South Carolina business with education for professionals, executives and entrepreneurs.

...groundbreaking on campus for the restoration, renovation and expansion of Lee Hall, and dedication of the expansion of Rhodes Hall.

...the announcement that construction will resume this year on the Academic Success Center and the Life Sciences building, two projects delayed by the budget crisis of 2009.

Jim Barker is a leading voice in higher education for South Carolina and the nation. He served on the NCAA Division I Board of Directors for four years, three of which as Chair. He also delivered a keynote address at a symposium in Washington D.C. on Global Best Practices in science & technology parks sponsored by the U.S. National Academy of Sciences.

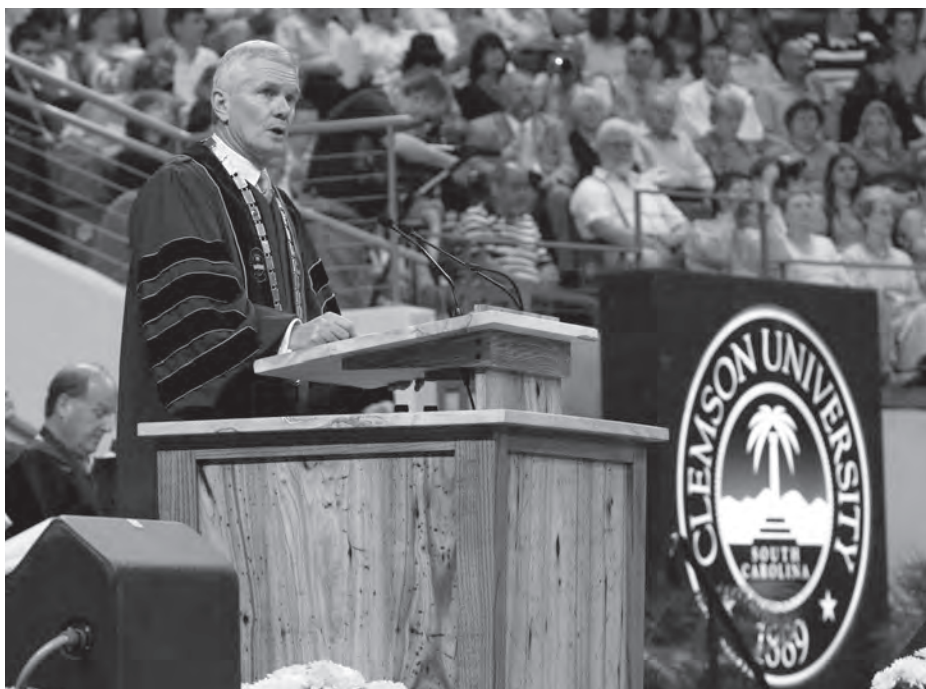

For his leadership, Barker has received the Order of the Palmetto, South Carolina's highest civilian honor, and The Cliff's Business Person-of-the-Year Award from Greenville Magazine. He has also been awarded honorary doctorates from the Medical University of South Carolina, South Carolina State University, and Mars Hill College.

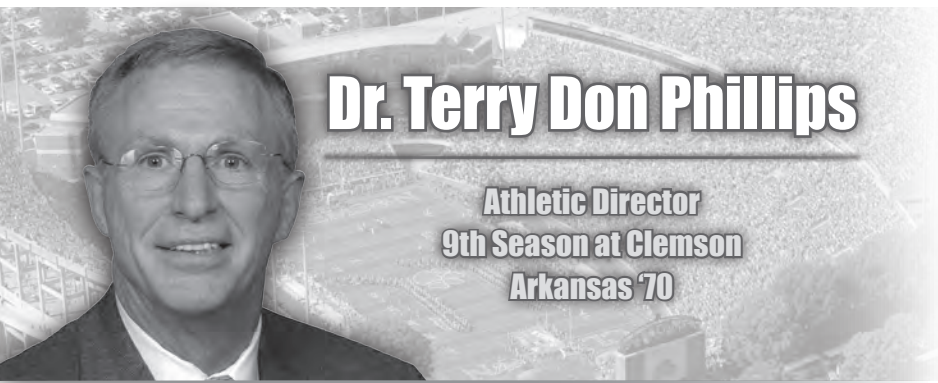

A native of Kingsport, Tennessee, Barker received his bachelor of arts degree from Clemson in 1970 and his master of architecture & urban design degree in 1973 from Washington University in St. Louis, which also recognized him with its Distinguished Alumnus Award. He is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and the Institute for Urban Design.

As Clemson's President, Barker remains committed to the classroom. Each spring, he is part of a team that teaches an undergraduate course exploring "a sense of place" in architecture, literature, and history.

In his spare time, what there is of it, he runs and maintains the daily fitness regimen of a life-long athlete. He is widely acclaimed for his pen-and-ink drawings of campus buildings and has recently taken up watercolor painting.

Jim Barker and his wife Marcia have two sons, Britt and Jacob, a daughter-in-law Rita Bolt Barker, and one grandchild.

Dr. Terry Don Phillips

Athletic Director
9th Season at Clemson
Arkansas '70

was the first national study of Title IX implications on college athletic programs. This research spawned his intent and desire to study law.

Prior to coming to Clemson, Phillips served as athletic director at Oklahoma State. Football was transformed from a perennial losing status to defeating Oklahoma during five of the eight years he was associated with Oklahoma State (1994-02). For this, he received the National Football Foundation Oklahoma Chapter Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award in 2002. Additionally in 2006, he was named one of the top-25 most influential people in the history of Oklahoma State Athletics by GoPokes Magazine.

When it came to success on the field and in the classroom, Oklahoma State's programs were among the Big 12's best. The achievements of the program included two national titles in men's golf, a men's basketball Final Four appearance, two trips to the College World Series, 13 Big 12 titles, and 11 individual National Champions along with 53 academic All-Americans. Before leading Oklahoma State, Phillips served as senior associate athletic director at Arkansas from 1988-94.

Phillips has served as athletic director at Liberty (1980-81) and Louisiana-Lafayette (1983-88). He was an assistant athletic director at Missouri (1981-83) and began his administrative career in 1979 as an assistant athletic director at Florida.

Phillips began his career in college athletics coaching football. He started as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1970 and 1971. He moved on to Virginia Tech as an assistant coach (1971-78) before joining the ranks of athletic administration. At Virginia Tech, he served on coaching staffs that included future Clemson Head Coaches Charley Pell and Danny Ford.

Winning has been on Phillips' resumé since his playing days at Arkansas. He lettered on three Frank Broyles teams (1966,68,69), where he and his brother Loyd, an Outland Trophy winner, were starting defensive tackles, the first brother combination to start together under Broyles. Arkansas had a 27-5 record in the three years, played in two Sugar Bowl games, and played in the memorable 1969 National Championship game against Texas.

In June of 2010, it was announced that Phillips would be inducted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor.

Phillips has two children, John Dennis and Sarah-Jane, and three stepchildren, Meagan, a senior at Clemson and proud member of Tiger Band, Marshall, and Madison. His wife Tricia is a graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and earlier enjoyed a career in athletics and development. She is now active in the Clemson and Seneca communities.

When Clemson's baseball team reached the Final Four of the 2010 College World Series, it concluded one of the great all-around sports years in school history. In addition to a #4 final ranking in baseball, the Tigers ranked in the top 25 in the nation in football after a bowl victory against Kentucky, and won the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the first time. The men's basketball team recorded a fourth straight 20-win season, including a victory over National Finalist Butler, and reached the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for a record tying third straight year.

Clemson was one of just eight schools nationally to go to a bowl game, the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Baseball Tournament. It was the second straight year Clemson accomplished the "high profile sports triple." Clemson joins Florida State, Minnesota and Texas as the only four schools to do it in consecutive years.

Reaching a high level of success in the high profile sports is a credit to the administrative acumen of Clemson Athletic Director Dr. Terry Don Phillips. Now in his ninth year leading the Clemson program, Phillips has enhanced the Tigers program on many levels.

In addition to the success of the high profile sports in 2009-10, the Clemson women's track program won the ACC Championship in both indoor and outdoor track, a first for the program, and finished in the top 20 in the nation at both national meets. The rowing program had its second consecutive top 15 finish, and the volleyball team made its third consecutive NCAA appearance. Overall, seven different Clemson teams finished in the top 25 in the nation.

In his eight years at Clemson, the program has had 46 teams finish the season in the top 25. Five different women's sports have captured ACC championships during his tenure. Only Virginia has had a wider variety of women's sports win league titles.

One of the reasons for Clemson's level of success as a total sports program has been his emphasis on improving facilities. On June 30, 2009, Clemson's football staff moved into the West Endzone at Memorial Stadium. It was a day that brought a smile to everyone associated with the Clemson program, but especially Phillips, who had been working toward that day before he arrived on campus in 2002.

Phillips' vision for the West Endzone was to create a top-of-the-line facility for the football program, but at the same time have a positive effect on the total sports program. The facility at Memorial Stadium now creates more office space, new locker rooms, and training room and strength training facilities for the Olympic sports programs.

Clemson recently completed a new boat house for the rowing program, one of the top facilities in the nation, added the new multi-million-dollar Chapman Grandstands at Doug Kingsmore Stadium and a new Clubhouse area at the Hoke Sloan Tennis Facility. Other improvements in the last three years have included a new practice facility for the Clemson golf program, and a new press box at the Riggs Field soccer stadium. Plans are in the works for the construction of the Penley Golf Building, a new baseball locker room, and a significant enhancement to Riggs Field.

Academically, 17 of the 19 programs were above the national average for public institutions in terms of APR scores. In the 2010 spring semester, over 50 percent of Clemson's student-athletes were on the academic honor roll and seven of the 15 programs had team GPAs of at least 3.0 and the overall GPA was 2.92 for the semester, third highest on record.

Phillips has been recognized for these accomplishments in recent years. He was named as one of the top-100 Most Influential Sports Educators in America in 2008, a selection made by The Institute for International Sport at the University of Rhode Island. The institute's objective involved a four-year process and resulted in a list that spans scholars, Olympians, coaches, and other industry leaders "who have creatively and effectively used sport in the very best way as a means to educate and shape positive values.

Phillips' athletic career and academic pursuits epitomize that desire. Believed to be the only Division I athletic director with both a doctorate and law degree, he uniquely blends the discipline and inspiration created on each side of campus. He has firmly put his imprint on the University and Tiger athletics by creating a balanced, positive environment for success that emphasizes academic integrity, student-athlete welfare, and competing at the highest levels with unequivocal NCAA compliance.

Phillips was also recognized nationally for his performance at Clemson in June of 2006 when he was honored by NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) as the 2005-06 GeneralSports Turf Systems Athletic Director-of-the-Year for the Southeast Region of the FBS. He was one of just four FBS athletic directors honored at the annual convention in New Orleans, LA.

Excellence in academics has been a constant on his resumé. He has an undergraduate degree from Arkansas (1970), a master's degree from Virginia Tech (1974), a doctorate degree from Virginia Tech (1978), and a law degree from the University of Arkansas School of Law (1996). He is a member of the Arkansas Bar, the South Carolina Bar, American Bar Association, and Sports Lawyers Association.

Phillips remains a classroom presence by teaching a sports law section in Clemson's Accountancy & Legal Studies department. In addition, he is past chair of the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeals Committee. He has written on diverse areas, such as antitrust and the NCAA, student-athlete welfare, alternative dispute resolution, and Title IX. His doctoral dissertation on Title IX involved a historical review of the law and

NCAA Compliance

Compliance Services Staff

This brief NCAA rules education is aimed at outlining basic recruiting rules to help potential Tiger students-athletes and parents better understand the extensive process. Clemson University is committed to recruiting and conducting our athletic program with the highest level of integrity. If you have questions about NCAA rules, please contact Clemson's compliance services at (864) 656-1580 or through our website at ClemsonTigers.com and click on compliance.

Important NCAA Terms

Academic Credentials - A prospect should check with his high school guidance office to see if he is taking classes that will meet NCAA eligibility standards. A prospect should do this early (prior to his sophomore year) and keep track of core courses. A prospect will need to take either the ACT or SAT for NCAA certification.

Contact - NCAA rules define a contact as a face-to-face interaction with a prospect and/or his parents by a coach off Clemson's campus. The NCAA sets a contact period for football prospects from late November through the end of January. That is the only time coaches can meet with a prospect away from the Clemson campus.

Core Courses - Courses at a prospect's high school that are considered college preparatory. The NCAA requires 16 core courses, including four in English, three in math, two in science, one additional from English, math, or science, two social sciences, and four additional courses. A high school prospect's guidance counselor will have a list of the school's core courses (48H), or visit the NCAA Eligibility Center's website at NCAAEligibilityCenter.com for more information.

Dead Period - Recruiting period when coaches may not have face-to-face contact with prospects on or off campus. Coaches may continue to telephone and write a prospect.

Evaluation - In April and May of a prospect's junior year, coaches will visit a prospect's high school and review his athletic and academic credentials with his coach. In the fall, they may watch a prospect compete one time but will not have any contact.

Home Visit - During the contact period, a senior prospect may invite college coaches to his home to meet his parents and to talk in detail about the football program and academic offerings at any college the prospect is considering.

Prospect - Any student who has entered the ninth grade. Once a person becomes a prospect, NCAA rules define how college coaches can interact with that prospect.

Receiving Mail - Prior to September 1 of a prospect's junior year, NCAA rules allow Clemson to mail a questionnaire, NCAA educational information, and a summer-camp brochure to a prospect. After September 1 of the prospect's junior year, coaches can provide a prospect with personalized letters and emails. A prospect can receive a football game program when he visits the Clemson University campus. Media guides may be provided on a CD or flash drive only.

Recruiting - A term used to describe the process of acquainting a prospect with a college and the coaches of that college who are striving to learn more about a prospect. Only coaches can recruit. No one else is permitted to persuade a prospect to play sports at a particular college.

Standardized Test - A prospect must take the ACT or SAT before enrolling in college full-time. A prospect may take the ACT or SAT more than once and use the best subscore from different tests to achieve the highest score. Both Clemson and the NCAA Eligibility Center require scores to be reported directly from the testing agency. When registering for the test, list the Eligibility Center Code (9999) and Clemson (3842 (ACT), 5111 (SAT)). Clemson University admissions requires students to present either an ACT or SAT writing score. The writing score will not be used to determine a prospect's qualifier status.

Telephone - Clemson football coaches can call a prospect once in May during the prospect's junior year. After September 1 of a prospect's senior year, a coach can call a prospect only once a week. A prospect can expect unlimited calls during the contact period...before his official visit and once the prospect has signed a National Letter of Intent (NLI).

Frequently Asked Questions

- Are a prospect's parents invited for an official visit? Yes. NCAA rules allow a school to provide lodging and meals for parents or legal guardians who accompany their child. However, NCAA rules do not allow schools to provide transportation for parents unless they drive with their son.
- Can a prospect visit Clemson anytime during his high school career? Yes. A prospect can have his high school coach call Clemson coaches to set up an unofficial visit. He can attend a football game and talk with Tiger coaches, and it does not count as a contact when it is on Clemson's campus. There are times when a prospect cannot visit... NCAA rules refer to them as "dead periods," as coaches will not schedule to meet with a prospect during that time.
- Can IPTAY members help recruit? No. NCAA rules are clear...only Clemson coaches can telephone, contact, and evaluate a prospect. Only college coaches can offer unofficial and official visits.
- What is a National Letter of Intent (NLI)? It is a contract. A prospect and his parents sign a promise that the prospect will attend a particular college. In return, that college promises a prospect financial aid. A prospect signs a national letter of intent during his senior year. Once the prospect signs a national letter of intent, he cannot be recruited by any other institution, and it is a binding contract for the prospect's first year in college at the school that provides the national letter of intent. The NLI signing period begins February 2, 2011 and ends April 1, 2011.

• What is an official visit? A prospect is allowed to take a total of five official visits (one per institution), which are expense-paid. Before the official visit, the prospect must present his high school transcript, proof of an ACT, PACT, SAT, or PSAT test, and be registered with the NCAA Eligibility Center. Official visit invitations are extended by Clemson coaches only. Official visits may not be taken prior to the first day of classes during the prospect's senior year of high school.

• What is the NCAA Eligibility Center? It is the agency that certifies a prospect's initial academic and amateur eligibility for both NCAA Division I and Division II. A prospect should register with the NCAA Eligibility Center at the conclusion of his junior year in high school online at NCAAEligibilityCenter.com. Cost is $60. Remember to keep the PIN in a place for easy retrieval. A prospect should request the guidance counselor to send a transcript after his junior year and final transcript after graduation. A prospect should also request a final amateur decision beginning on April 1 of his senior year.

CUAD Mission Statement

The Department of Athletics offers nationally prominent athletic programs. Through a dedicated commitment to educational interests, a competitive athletic program, and integrity in all areas, the student-athletes, coaches, and staff strive to bring credit and recognition to Clemson University.

The mission of the Athletic Department is to sponsor a broad-based athletic program that provides educational and athletic opportunities for young men and women to grow, develop, and serve the interests of Clemson University by complementing and enhancing its diversity and quality of life.

Furthermore, the Athletic Department seeks to be a source of pride for the citizens of the State of South Carolina and to be recognized as a nationally-prominent program, through consistently high levels of performance and accomplishment in athletic competitions.

The Athletic Department strives to develop student-athletes academically and athletically with the total commitment of aiding their efforts to graduate from Clemson University and advance to careers that will enable them to be productive members of society.

The Athletic Department will act in an ethical and honest manner, dedicated to compliance with all Federal, State, NCAA, Conference, and University rules and regulations.

University Profile

University founder Thomas Green Clemson was born in Philadelphia, PA and educated in the United States and Europe. A champion of formal scientific education, he had a life-long interest in agricultural affairs and in the business of farming.

He came to the South Carolina Foothills when, in 1838, he married Anna Maria Calhoun, daughter of South Carolina's famous statesman John C. Calhoun.

In the post-Civil War days of 1865, Thomas Clemson looked upon a South that lay in economic ruin, once remarking "this country is in wretched condition, no money and nothing to sell. Everyone is ruined, and those that can are leaving."

Thomas Clemson's death on April 6, 1888 set in motion a series of events that marked the start of a new era in higher education in South Carolina. In his will, he bequeathed the Fort Hill plantation and a considerable sum from his personal assets for the establishment of an educational institution that would teach scientific, agriculture, and the mechanical arts to South Carolina's young people.

In November 1889, Gov. John Peter Richardson signed the bill accepting Thomas Clemson's gift, which established the Clemson Agricultural College, with its trustees becoming custodians of Morrill Act and Hatch Act funds made available for agricultural education and research purposes by federal legislative acts.

Although he also is remembered for other accomplishments, Thomas Clemson made his greatest historical contribution when his life became intertwined with the destiny of educational and economic development in South Carolina.

Clemson College formally opened in July of 1893 with an enrollment of 446. From the beginning, the college was an all-male military school. It remained this way until 1955 when the change was made to "civilian" status for students, and Clemson became a co-educational institution. In 1964, the college was renamed Clemson University, as the state Legislature formally recognized the school's expanded academic offerings and research pursuits.

More than a century after its opening, the University provides diverse learning, research facilities and educational opportunities, not only for the people of the state, as Thomas Clemson dreamed, but for thousands of young men and women throughout the country and the world.

The Clemson Education

- U.S. News & World Report ranked Clemson the leading university in South Carolina and #22 among the nation's top public universities in August of 2009. The university's goal is to be one of the top-20 public universities in the nation. Clemson has improved 52 spots since 1997.
- Clemson features a diverse curriculum...there are 80 undergraduate degree programs and 110 graduate degree programs.
- In 2006, Clemson was selected for a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious honor society.
- Clemson's five different colleges include Agriculture, Forestry, & Life Sciences; Architecture, Arts, & Humanities; Business & Behavioral Science; Engineering & Science; and Health, Education, & Human Development.

- The Calhoun Honors College strives to enrich the educational experience of highly-motivated, academically-talented students by providing opportunities for scholarship and research not ordinarily available to undergraduates. Established in 1962, it is the oldest honors program in the state.
- Kiplinger's magazine ranks Clemson #33 among public institutions in its roundup of institutions providing a top-quality education at a reasonable price.

- Eight graduate programs within the College of Engineering & Science are among the nation's top 40 according to the 2009 edition of U.S. News & World Report guide to graduate programs. That includes a #19 national ranking for the environmental science program. Civil engineering's undergraduate program is also among the top 35.
- The Program for Educational Enrichment and Retention (PEER) helped bring Clemson's graduation rate of African-American engineering students to the highest in the nation among predominantly non-historically black schools.

- Clemson's College of Engineering and Science grants more than two-thirds of all engineering degrees in South Carolina and enrolls nearly 75 percent of the state's engineering students.
- Clemson was named the #1 place to work in academia by The Scientist in 2007.
- Clemson's Center for Advanced Engineering Fibers & Films was designated a national engineering research center by the National Science Foundation, one of only 20 in the nation.
- In a poll of leading architecture firms and the editors of Design Intelligence, the school of architecture ranked #2 in the south and #11 in the nation.
- Design Intelligence ranked Clemson's landscape architecture program #11 among in the country.
- The Unofficial, Unbiased, Insider's Guide to the 328 Most Interesting Colleges cited Clemson as a top school in career preparation.
- The Institute for International Sports named Clemson one of four universities as an All-American Sportsmanship School in 2008.
- BusinessWeek ranked Clemson's undergraduate business school #27 among public universities.

The Clemson Experience

- Whether it is walking to the Hendrix Student Center to have a milkshake, or taking a stroll through the State's Botanical Gardens, or even taking part in a pickup basketball game at Fike Recreation Center, there are plenty of activities for Clemson students when they are not in the classroom.
- Clemson has 317 student organizations active on campus, including 23 fraternities and 15 sororities. There are organizations related to every course of study, groups such as the Accounting Club and the American Institute of Architects. For students who enjoy writing or photography, The Tiger, the campus newspaper, TAPS, the university yearbook, and Semantics, the student and literary magazine, are available.
- Clemson's Habitat for Humanity Chapter was named 2008 Campus Chapter-of-the-Year for its relationship with Pickens County and for being a leader in green building practices.
- Located in the Edgar Brown Union are the offices of both undergraduate and graduate student government, which gives students the opportunity to influence campus policy.

- Fike Recreation Center, which just completed a renovation and expansion project, has a host of opportunities for students to let off steam through physical activity. Inside Fike is an eight-lane swimming pool, a diving tank, two gyms used for basketball and other activities, various weightlifting facilities, and room for aerobics. Outside Fike are several spacious fields used for the extensive intramural program and for student enjoyment. There are indoor and lighted outdoor tennis courts across the street at Hoke Sloan Tennis Center.

The Clemson Facilities

- The Hendrix Student Center is a 108,000 square-foot facility in the heart of Clemson's campus that contains a convenience store, food court, movie theater, and bookstore. The center has 15,000 square feet of meeting rooms and a 2,600-square-foot student lounge. It is also the home of the Michelin Career Center, student media, and Campus Life offices, which provide venue management and event planning for the Hendrix Student Center, Edgar Brown Union, Littlejohn Coliseum, Tillman Auditorium, and a variety of outdoor venues.
- The main university library, Robert Muldrow Cooper Library, is situated in the center of campus. The library has become one of the national leaders in automated information retrieval. Its bibliographic records are accessible from anywhere in the world, easing the task of finding information in its collections, which total more than 1.7 million items. Numerous periodical indexes are housed online and available for automated searching. The collections are particularly strong in agriculture, natural and physical sciences, economics, and technology. Of special interest are the James F. Byrnes and Edgar A. Brown Rooms, which have the collections of papers of these statesmen.
- The Michelin Career Center can help with planning and finding summer and full-time employment. The office assists in career counseling and planning, searching for a job, preparing resumes, and developing job interview strategies. Resources include staff expertise, books, videotapes, and literature provided by companies and agencies. Clemson has developed one of the best automated placement systems in the country, allowing students to research employers and sign up for interviews from any mainframe computer terminal on campus.

The Clemson Faculty

- Clemson's student-to-faculty ratio of 14-to-1 gives the faculty the opportunity to interact with many of the students on a one-on-one basis. Critical thinking, problem solving, creative learning, and self-development are just a few of the characteristics emphasized in the classroom.

- The Clemson faculty includes 33 Fulbright Scholars along with 59 endowed chairs, named professorships, and alumni professorships.
- Over 500 institutions of higher learning that promote excellence in teaching, research, and scholarship are represented among Clemson's faculty.
- Over 86 percent of the faculty hold doctorates, the highest degree in their field, and many have achieved special academic recognition. Many have been honored by colleagues and students as master teachers for their excellence in the classroom and by Outstanding Educators of America.

The Clemson Student

- Time Magazine ranked Clemson its "Public College-of-the-Year" in 2000.
- The Princeton Review ranked Clemson students the nation's #1 "Happiest Student Body" in 2008.
- Clemson's total enrollment of 18,317 represents 50 states and 89 foreign countries.
- Clemson features a competitive student body, and thus a degree that has meaning. The 2008-09 entering freshman class achieved an average SAT score of 1,223. It is one of the highest scores ever attained by Clemson's entering students and again leads the state's public colleges and universities.
- Since 1993, honors students have accounted for more than 10 percent of the freshman class, and 52 percent of 2008-09 incoming freshmen graduated in the top-10 percent of their high school class.
- Clemson has a mentoring program to help students prepare and compete for Rhodes, Truman, Marshall, and Fulbright Scholarships.

Vickery Hall

Since its inception in 1991, the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided student-athletes a continued commitment to excellence. Our approach is to address the total student-athlete, and we are committed to coaching our student-athletes to success in the academic, personal growth, career, and community service arenas.

As an original member of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, we provide opportunities and services to address the changing needs and skills of student-athletes during college and after graduation. This program was selected for the FBS Athletic Director's Association "Program of Excellence" Award, a lifetime award recognizing CHAMPS/Life Skills excellence.

Clemson's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the best facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium and the beautiful WestZone, to the "New Littlejohn Coliseum," to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all of Clemson's intercollegiate varsity sports have the best in facilities for both training and competition.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs are housed in Vickery Hall, located in the center of campus. The $3-million structure is as impressive aesthetically as other athletic facilities. It recently underwent $300,000 in renovations to further assist our student-athletes in the classroom. But the importance of Vickery Hall to our student-athletes is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the fall of 1991 and was the first facility in the country constructed solely to provide academic support to student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square-foot building is open all day and into the evening hours to accommodate the student-athletes' extended schedules.

Vickery Hall programs are dedicated to providing a holistic, educational experience by inspiring an environment of respect, integrity, and excellence. Through these services, Vickery Hall guides and encourages each individual to reach his or her full potential as a student, athlete, and citizen.

Academic Commitment

Over 50 percent of Clemson's student-athletes were on the academic honor roll for the spring and fall semesters in 2009-10. Seven of the 15 programs had team GPAs of at least 3.0 and the overall GPA was 2.92 for the semester in the spring, third-highest on record. There were 114 student-athletes on the Dean's List, including 39 who posted a perfect 4.0 GPA for the semester.

The programs that posted a 3.0 or better were the men's soccer (3.16), women's soccer (3.40), women's swimming (3.28), men's tennis (3.04), women's tennis (3.04), women's track & field (3.23) and rowing (3.13) teams.

The number of sports programs with a 3.0 or better is a testament to the impact Vickery Hall and its staff has had on the academic performance of the Clemson program. Clemson had just five total programs with at least a 3.0 for the eight semesters prior to the facility opening in 1991. Now there are seven different programs in one semester.

The women's track & field (18th), women's tennis (11th) and rowing (15th) teams also ranked in the top 20 in the nation in their final meet or poll, in addition to achieving a team GPA of 3.0 or better.

For the first time ever, all 15 programs had at least a 2.50 GPA in the same semester. The seven teams with at least a 3.0 GPA rank just one short of the record of eight different programs with a 3.0 in one semester.

The Clemson football team posted a 2.56 GPA for the semester and 33 of the team members had at least a 3.0. It is the third straight semester the football team has had at least 30 members make the academic honor roll, the second-longest streak in the program's history (four in a row in 1999-01). The list of academic honor roll members included first-team All-American DeAndre McDaniel, starting center Dalton Freeman, who made the Dean's List, and first-team All-ACC tight end Michael Palmer, who had a 4.0 and graduated in May.

Seven members of the Clemson football team were named to the All-ACC Academic Team. The Tigers had the second-most selections to the team, trailing only Duke, who had 12. The seven selections were the most ever for the Clemson program. The ACC has selected an All-ACC Academic football team every year since 1954. The previous Clemson record was five selections in 1965, 1985, 2001, 2007 and 2008.

Members of the 2009 Tiger team who were selected included Thomas Austin, Michael Palmer, Brandon Maye, Mason Cloy, Dawson Zimmerman, Rashard Hall and Dalton Freeman. Austin was also a third-team All-American and Palmer was first-team All-ACC.

Athletic Commitment

Clemson was one of eight schools in the nation to be selected for a bowl game, the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and the NCAA baseball tournament in 2009-10. The Tigers joined Florida State as the only schools in the nation to go to a bowl, the NCAA basketball tournament and the College World Series. This is the ninth year Clemson has been to a bowl game, the NCAA Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Baseball Tournament in the same academic year.

Clemson became the first school in the ACC to capture a Divisional title in both baseball and football in the same athletic season. The football team defeated Virginia at home on Nov. 21 to clinch the Atlantic Division, while baseball completed a sweep of Florida State on May 22 to earn the title.

The Tiger program collected ACC Championships in women's indoor and outdoor track & field.

spring sports finished with top 20 national rankings. The rowing (15), golf (16), women's tennis (11), women's track & field (18) and baseball (4) teams, all finished in the top 20. It was just the second time in school history the program had five top-20 programs during the spring. The spring of 1992 was the only other year it has happened. Overall, Clemson had seven of its 19 sports programs ranked in the final top-25 of their respective polls.

C.J. Spiller was a first-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in the 2010 NFL draft. He was the number-nine selection overall. In June, Kyle Parker was the #26 selection of the Colorado Rockies of the Major League baseball draft. Trevor Booker of the men's basketball team followed suit as the #23 overall selection in the NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards. Clemson and Georgia Tech were the only two schools in the nation with a first-round draft choice in all three sports this year.

The Tiger program also produced an NCAA Champion in 2010 when Patricia Mamona of the track & field team won the outdoor triple jump.

Career Development Commitment

The Career Enhancement Program provides student-athletes an opportunity to develop and meet their career aspirations by participating in various seminars. We coordinate with the academic colleges, the Michelin Center, and through athletic contacts to provide student-athletes with job-searching skills and strategies, internships, practical experiences, and help in securing summer employment. They are designed to address specific career opportunities and provide related information about the student-athletes for each year.

One major aspect of the Career Enhancement Program is to focus on building a resumé and interviewing techniques. This segment is designed to better prepare our student-athletes for full-time employment. Another aspect utilizes the resources available to the University, alumni center, and athletic department. The staff works to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will assist with providing internship and employment opportunities.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have a career counselor on staff, so career advice is readily available in Vickery Hall. Unique to our program, the career counselor works closely with the Michelin Career Center and SAEP staff. This link between athletics and the Michelin Career Center provides student-athletes the most up-to-date information and resources in career development, and preparation for entrance into the job market upon graduation.

Personal Development Commitment

One of the most important programs in Vickery Hall that helps student-athletes reach their full potential and successfully engage in their college experience is the Personal Growth & Development program. One key component is a first-semester freshman class designed to assist student-athletes in making a successful transition into the university along with athletic life. All first-semester freshmen attend a semester-long series of workshops, targeting the transitional issues of time management, organizational strategies, health and wellness issues, athletic performance, diversity issues, career orientation, and service training.

Throughout the academic year, all student-athletes are required to attend large-group programs, which focus on pertinent social, health, and athletic issues.

GAMEDAY IN CLEMSON

“Death Valley”

Clemson's Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it be players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s, or even professional players in the 1990s, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father and son head coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a sellout crowd of more than 86,000 fans in 1999. Clemson has been in the top 20 in the nation in attendance 29 straight seasons. A crowd has exceeded 80,000 fans 55 times since the 1983 season. In 2009, Clemson was 17th in the nation in average home attendance.

The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in 1942, the legendary games and players, and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. Clemson has won 251 games in 68 years there and has won over 71 percent of the games (251-97-7).

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of at least one coach. Just before Head Coach Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

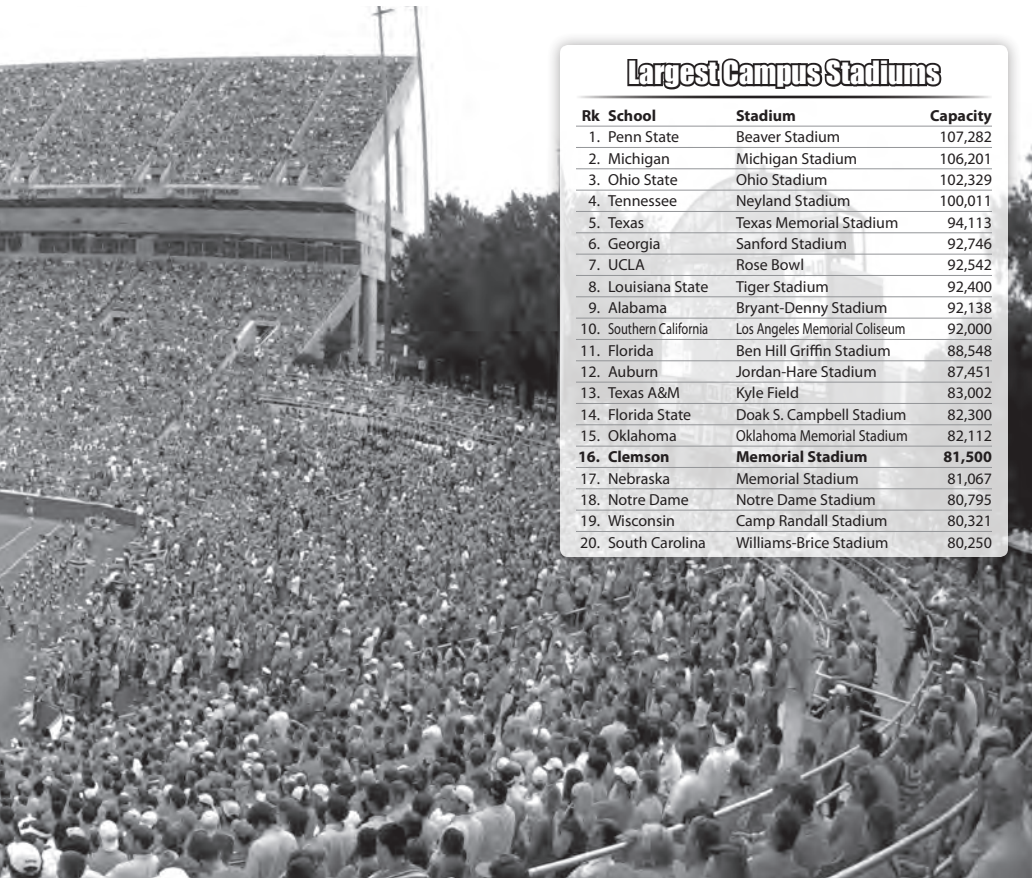

“Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium,” he said. “Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need.”

Instead of following Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place took some clearing, as there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally on September 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian College 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 1940s, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without problems. One day during the clearing of the land, a young player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then proceeded to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, the boy was swollen twice his size and was hospitalized.

There are many other stories about the stadium, including one that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner as the concrete poured.

Howard said that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he said. "After three weeks on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more weeks' pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that, it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard said that on the day of the first game in the stadium, "the gates were hung at 1:00 and we played at 2:00." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west endzone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled - the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the nation's largest on-campus stadiums. In 2006, the WestZone was added, an area that contains locker rooms and a luxury club level that holds 1,000 seats.

The effect that inflation has had can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of Memorial Stadium was built at a cost of only $125,000, or $6.25 per seat. The stadium's newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 per seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged by the late Presbyterian College Coach Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Luckily, it wasn't built behind the Y.

Death Valley Quotes

"Running down the Hill is still talked about everywhere I go. Players who played against Clemson when I was in college remember us running down the Hill and thinking we would gain some type of spirit. The adrenalin rush was unbelievable for a Clemson player and quite a shock for the opponent."

Former Clemson All-American Jerry Butler

"I came here knowing it would be loud and Clemson would hit hard, but the noise was the biggest factor. I didn't concentrate as well because of it."

Herschel Walker after Clemson's 13-3 win in 1981, his only regular-season loss

"The Rock has strange powers. When you rub it and run down the Hill, the adrenaline flows. It's the most emotional experience I've ever had."

Six-time All-Pro and Tiger All-American Michael Dean Perry

"When Clemson players rub that Rock and run down the Hill, it's the most exciting 25 seconds in college football."

Brent Musburger, ABC Sports

"There is no place louder or more picturesque than Death Valley. There, where Clemson folks see magic in a hill and a rock, orange gets more respect than anywhere this side of Gainesville, Florida."

Terence Moore, Atlanta Journal-Constitution

"When you get to the bottom of the Hill, it's like you're in a hole and all around you are nothing but Clemson fans. It's like the crowd is one big voice. You feel like little kings."

Former Clemson running back Rodney Blunt

"Death Valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium. When you put 80,000 people in there, it feels like they are on top of you. I'd hate to be whoever comes here to play Clemson."

San Francisco quarterback Steve Young

"Florida was loud in the swamp. But the loudest, not only the stadium, but the loudest place I have ever been around in my life was definitely Death Valley. I was yelling at the top of my lungs and I couldn't even hear what I was saying. That place was unreal in how loud it was. I don't think I will ever be in a louder place than Clemson."

Florida State quarterback Chris Rix, 2001

"I'm very thankful that we're playing a day game at Clemson. The last time we were up there, it was extremely loud. I yelled the calls to my guard, but we couldn't hear each other and we couldn't hear each other in the huddle. When you have fans that can get that loud and distract offenses like that, that's as important as having an All-American on your defense."

Florida State center David Castillo, 2005

"In 2005, Clemson's Memorial Stadium, commonly known as 'Death Valley,' reached an astounding 126 decibels when a packed crowd of 79,135 fans observed Charles Bennett's sack of quarterback Kyle Wright during the Tigers' three-overtime heartbreaker against the Miami Hurricanes. This level easily surpassed the old record of 121 decibels set by Louisiana State fans in Tiger Stadium, which holds 92,400 fans."

RealFootball365.com

"The game when I was a sophomore (in 2005) stands out for me. What an awesome place that is to play. I'll never forget that atmosphere, and I know for a fact I've never seen so much orange in one place at one time. If you've never been there, going out on the field for the first time at Clemson is incredible."

Boston College quarterback Matt Ryan, 2007

"We go to a lot of great venues for college football, but this place doesn't take a back seat to any place. In terms of the atmosphere, stadium, the noise, and the facilities, this is a special place on a Saturday night."

ESPN Commentator Todd Blackledge, 2009

"When you go down there, there are a couple of things you know. It's going to be loud. It's going to be challenging and it's going to be fun. It's a great atmosphere. There is real football fever and it is not just a Saturday afternoon activity. There is a real passion and real fever for Clemson football. I've always enjoyed going there because it is challenging."

Running Down the Hill

What has been described as, “the most exciting 25 seconds in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint,” actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity.

The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the United States was drawn into World War II.

The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse’s dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, which is located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone of Memorial Stadium...there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated manually by hand.

The team would dress at Fike, walk down Williamson Road, come in the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands, and jog down the Hill for its warmup exercises. There was no fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag, no “Tiger Rag” played...just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop.

That is pretty much the way things went for the next 25 years.

Either in 1964 or 1965, S.C. Jones, a member of the class of 1919, made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, CA and picked up a white flint rock. He presented it to Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on the floor in Howard’s office in Fike Fieldhouse for years. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon, who was executive secretary of IPTAY, to “take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch...do something with it, but get it out of my office!”

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought 3,000 miles by a very sincere Clemson fan.

By the mid-1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker (“Death Valley”) because of the number of Tiger wins that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillan, head coach at Presbyterian College during the 1940s.

McMillan and the other Blue Hose coaches before him used to open each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games), and with only three victories and four ties to show for it, his teams were getting “killed” by the Tigers regularly. In 1948, McMillan made the comment to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in “Death Valley.”

An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it “Death Valley” in the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 67th year in the “Valley” in 2008.

But getting back to Howard’s Rock.

The Rock was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled September 24, 1966 when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers were down 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 65-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jack Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for the Rock.

The team members started rubbing the Rock prior to running down the Hill on September 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest by a score of 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill that day, Howard told his players, "If you're going to give me 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you're not, keep your filthy hands off it."

Howard told of the incident during the following day on his television show, and the story became legend.

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach prior to the 1970 campaign, Ingram decided that the team would make its final entrance on the field out of the dressing room in the west endzone. In all home games during the 1970 and 1971 seasons and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The team decided it wanted to come down the Hill once prior to the South Carolina contest during the 1972 season. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

The Tigers have made the entrance for every home game since 1942, except for the seasons mentioned above (340 times entering the 2010 season).

After final warmups, the team gathers back in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final game instructions. Approximately 10 minutes prior to kickoff, the team boards three buses, rides around behind the north stands to the east endzone, and disembarks to the top of the Hill behind Howard's Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up "Tiger Rag"...the frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts for three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years.

The everyday activities for the football program moved to Memorial Stadium on July 1, 2009. Tiger coaches moved into new offices in the WestZone of Memorial Stadium that day. A month later, the team made the locker room in Death Valley its full-time facility.

Additionally, a new equipment facility, athletic training facility, and strength training facility opened with all the modern conveniences of an NFL franchise's facility.

The new facility is 142,000 square feet, which adds over 50,000 square feet to previous facilities in the Jervy Athletic Center. It includes a two-floor strength training facility that is 14,000 square feet, among the largest dedicated solely for football in the nation.

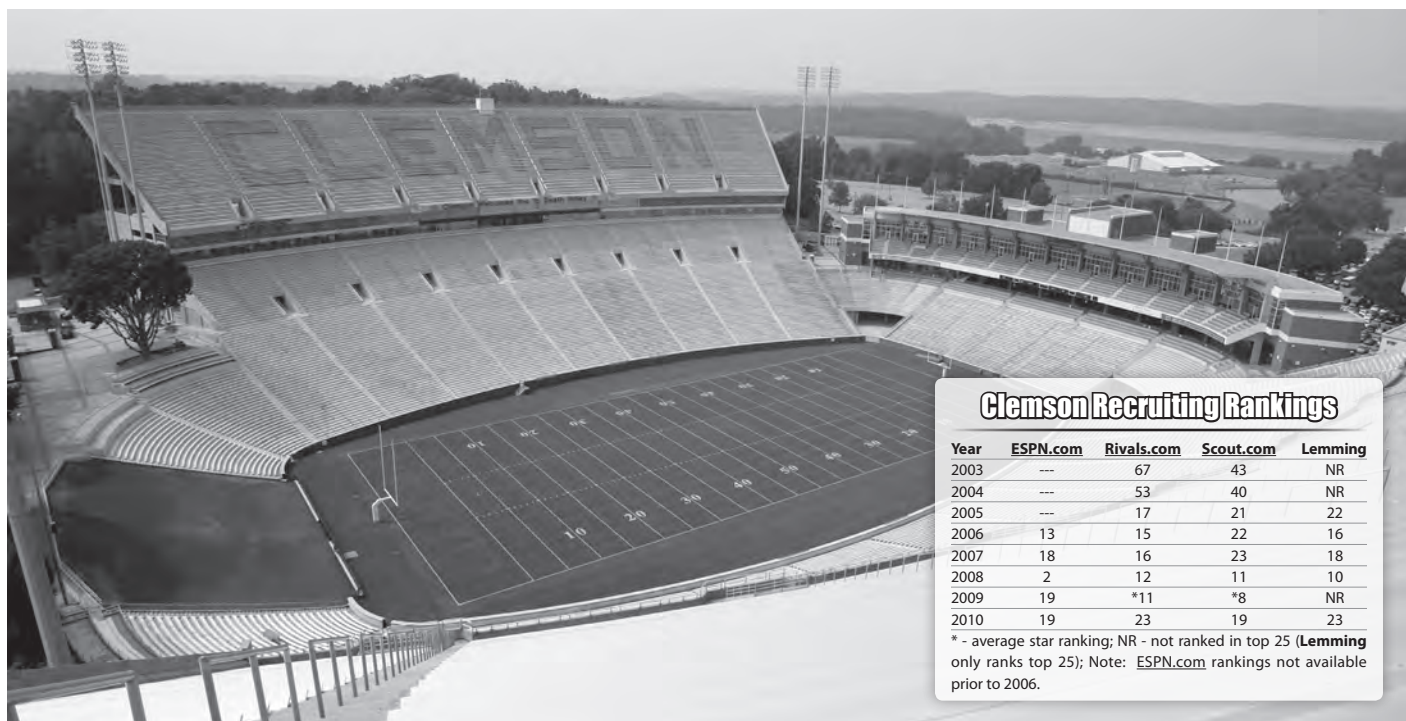

"The motto for our program since I became head coach is 'All-In,'" said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "This facility shows any Clemson football player, recruit, or supporter that our University is 'All-In' with this football program. The facility is among the best in the nation and allows our student-athletes to develop and become the best they can be."

The equipment room has been expanded to include, among other items, new offices and a new laundry room that encompasses approximately 6,000 square feet of space. The football staff offices and meeting rooms are composed of approximately 4,000 square feet of existing space and more than 18,000 square feet of new space.

The facility includes offices for the head coach, assistant coaches, and support staff along with position meeting rooms and a 150-seat auditorium with a sloped floor and theater seating.

The training room, located on the north side of the home team's locker room, is expanded to include a new hydrotherapy room, new offices, and examination rooms. The training room occupies about 6,200 square feet of space as well.

The level-three concourse has been expanded with the addition of the football offices. This space, the roof of the new football offices, is utilized for gameday marketing activities and to provide fans additional space to gather inside the stadium.

Clemson is committed to building a model sports program - one that propels our university into achieving and maintaining national athletic rankings that rival our competitors. The WestZone project is a major step forward in building a total sports program.

In order to be a consistent contender at the highest level of competition, Clemson must recruit the best student-athletes in the nation - student-athletes who can compete both academically and athletically. The nation's best recruits are impressed by superior facilities, top coaches, and a strong sense of excitement along with school spirit. They desire an environment in which they will have a positive, nurturing experience.

It is not a coincidence that the quality of Clemson's recruiting classes has improved dramatically since the WestZone project began in 2004.

Coaching is the most critical component of such an environment. An outstanding coach can sometimes transform meager resources into a good program, but the greatest success comes when top-quality coaching combined with top-quality facilities allows that coach to recruit successfully on a consistent and continuing basis.

Former Clemson running back James Davis, the 2005 ACC Rookie-of-the-Year and now with the Cleveland Browns, stated that one of the biggest contributing factors in deciding on Clemson was the University's commitment to upgrading facilities. "Does Clemson want to be a championship program?" asked Davis when he was considering Clemson. "The WestZone (initiative) showed me that it does!"

Building success requires building for success. While the WestZone is located in Memorial Stadium, the completed project will provide resources for Clemson's total sports program, permitting all Tiger teams and athletes to compete with the nation's best. Moving all football operations to the WestZone has opened up space in the Jervey and McFadden buildings for the other 18 Clemson sports to improve their facilities for recruiting, and have more office, training, conditioning, and sports medicine space. This will greatly enhance the overall performance, both on and off the field of competition, for all 19 sports.

A look to Clemson's history shows the importance infrastructure enhancements have on the football program. The following chart summarizes the relationship.

Joey Batson

Director of Strength & Conditioning
14th Season at Clemson
Newberry '85

Joey Batson is in his 25th year as a strength & conditioning coach at the collegiate level and 14th year as director of strength & conditioning at Clemson. He has served as a head strength & conditioning coach 21 of his 25 years of service.

Batson was named master strength & conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) in May of 2009. This honor is the highest given in the strength & conditioning coaching profession. Batson was presented with a blue MSCC jacket on May 7, 2009.

"This is an incredible honor for Joey," said Dr. Chuck Stiggins, CSCCA executive director. "Being named a master strength & conditioning coach signifies a commitment to the student-athlete, a commitment to the Clemson athletic program, and a commitment to the strength & conditioning profession. We are honored to have Coach Batson as a member of our association and to have him join the ranks of the master strength & conditioning coaches. He is truly a model of an outstanding strength & conditioning professional."

Batson, who was named National Strength & Conditioning Coach-of-the-Year by FootballScoop.com in the fall of 2009, was familiar with the Tiger program before he started his career in a full-time capacity, having served as a graduate assistant in the strength & conditioning department (1985-88). In the course of his professional career, he has pioneered many training techniques in the strength, speed, and conditioning field. These training strategies referred to by Batson as "Not So Basic Strength Training" were picked up from powerlifting guru Louie Simmons in the mid 1990s. The collection of innovative techniques has led to impressive results by many of his athletes throughout his career.

His competitive weight training experience began in 1987, when he placed fourth in San Jose, CA in The American Drug Free Powerlifting Association National Championships and fifth the following year in Chicago, IL. From 1985-87, Batson achieved a top-20 ranking in the ADFPA's 275-pound class and achieved the master & elite lifters classifications.

Batson has had a strong impact on the Clemson program since he became director in 1997. He has had much to do with the success of the football program, helping the Tigers to 11 bowl games and five top-25 final rankings. While at Clemson, he has worked for three head football coaches and has had a tremendous impact throughout the state at many notable high school programs.

An example of his respect level in the profession is demonstrated by the number of former assistants who are now assistants and/or directors at other universities, including conferences such as the ACC and SEC along with several high-profile high school programs in the state.

Prior to his return to Clemson, Batson served as the first full-time director of strength training at Furman. In 1996, he was named Strength & Conditioning Professional-of-the-Year in the Southern Conference by the National Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association after the Paladins advanced to the second round of the Division I-AA playoffs. In addition to his four years at Furman, he also worked as the first full-time director of strength & conditioning at Bowling Green, and served a year at South Carolina as assistant director of strength & conditioning.

Not only does Batson bring professional experience to the position at Clemson, he brings experience as a football player at the collegiate level. The Travelers Rest, SC native was a tight end at The Citadel in 1979 before transferring to Newberry, where he was a two-year letterman and team co-captain during his senior season.

Batson earned his bachelor of arts degree in physical education from Newberry in 1985 and his master's degree in education from Clemson in 1988. Prior to his collegiate career, Batson was named to the 1977 all-state football team as a defensive end in high school.

He is certified through the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association and is a member of several other professional groups. He has completed the Club Coach Certification program by the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Batson is married to the former Susan Malone of Greenville, SC. The couple has two sons, Michael and Benjamin.

Strength & Conditioning

A significant aspect of Phase II of the WestZone project at Memorial Stadium was the construction of a new strength training facility on the first floor that is adjacent to the Clemson locker room and the Frank Howard Field playing surface.

For the first time, there is a strength training facility exclusively for the development of the Clemson football team. Director of Strength & Conditioning Joey Batson, who is in his 14th season at Clemson, makes sure that all Tiger gridders are ready to compete against the top teams in the nation. In his first 13 years in Tiger-town, Clemson has gone to 11 bowl games and he has coached 19 strength All-Americans on

The new facility has the best in all strength training equipment, not to mention the existence of a new sound system and nine new flat-screen televisions that give the Tiger football player a pleasant atmosphere to accomplish the most strenuous work.

The strength training facility actually has two floors. The first floor has all the free-weight equipment, including a dumbbell area, and the second floor is a cardio-equipment area.

Batson has a staff of nine assistants working with the football team. Joining Batson are veteran Strength Coaches David Abernethy and Larry Greenlee. Five more assistants deal in player development year-round. Those assistants include former Tigers Bobby Hutchinson, Brian Mance, and Damonte McKenzie along with Brandon McCombs and Reed Stringer.

Facility Highlights

- 11 power racks
- 11 8x8 Olympic platforms
- 11 custom-built racks
- Football sleds that monitor power output and speed off the ball
- Cardio equipment
- Full line of leverage equipment
- Powerstation
- Nine flat-screen televisions
- Awards wall

the gridiron.

It is the fourth major facilities construction since Batson joined the program, an example of his desire to keep Clemson at the forefront of strength training.

- Named ACC Player of the Year.
- Unanimous first-team All-American, the third in Clemson history.
- Named Finalist for the Doak Walker Award, first Clemson running back to be a finalist for that award.
- National Kick Returner of the Year by College Performance Awards.
- Won Banks McFadden Award as top college football player in South Carolina.
- Had 20-233 and four touchdowns rushing in the ACC Championship game against Georgia Tech. He had 301 all-purpose running yards, his third 300-yard game of the year. One of just two players nationally with three 300-yard games. No Clemson player had recorded a 300-yard game prior to this year.
- MVP of the ACC Championship game even though Tigers lost the game. First player on the losing team to be MVP of a conference championship game.
- First player in ACC history with 1000 yards rushing and 500 receiving in the same year.
- *Had 21 touchdowns to set a Clemson record for a season and 51 for his career to set Clemson record.
- Only NCAA Division I player to score a touchdown in every one of his team's games in 2009.
- Set NCAA record for career kickoff returns for touchdowns when he went 88 yards with opening kickoff against South Carolina on November 28. That was the seventh of his career and fourth this year, one off NCAA record for kickoff returns for a touchdown in a season.
- His four kickoff returns for touchdown equaled the total for the other 11 ACC teams combined in 2009.
- Averaged an incredible 270 all-purpose yards per game in four games vs. Top 15 teams this year.
- Ranked fourth in the nation in all-purpose yards per game with 192 yards per game
- Established ACC record for all-purpose yards in a season with 2680 and career record with 7588. That total is second best in NCAA history.
- Named ACC Player of the Week three times, more than any other ACC player.
- Only player in the nation to account for a touchdown five different ways (pass, run, reception, kickoff return, punt return) this season.
- Only running back in the nation this year to throw a touchdown pass, catch a touchdown pass and rush for a score in the same game. He did that at NC State on November 14.
- Had 310 against eighth-ranked Miami in Miami on October 24 in Clemson's 40-37 victory, then had 312 two weeks later against Florida State.
- National Offensive Player of the Week by Walter Camp Foundation for his 310-yard performance against Miami on October 24.

two runs of at least 60 yards this year.

- Had 21 career touchdowns of 50 yards or more, including nine in 2009. Had 11 touchdowns of 80 yards or more in his career.
- Became just sixth player in ACC history with 3000 yards rushing and 1000 yards receiving when he went over 3000 rushing yards in win over Florida State.
- Graduated in three-and-a-half years on December 17, 2009. Clemson Board of Trustees gave him a standing ovation as he crossed the stage.
- Made first-team Academic All-ACC in 2008 when he made the Dean's List. First Clemson running back to make first-team Academic All-ACC and first-team All-ACC on the field in same year in school history.

Quotes on C.J. Spiller

"I thought Spiller was the difference in the game. I doubt if anyone is playing better than him in the country. The happiest I was, was when he was off the field. I knew he couldn't get the ball.

"I would rank him pretty high among the really great players I have seen. The people that recruit those kinds of guys, they are the ones that have a chance to win National Championships because it is people like him that can get you in there."

Florida State head Coach Bobby Bowden, Nov. 7, 2009

"Spiller is unique in his overall skill set. He's clearly a dynamic, hard to get on the ground runner -- his kick return record speaks for itself. He's got two touchdown passes in his resume. One of which we witnessed.

He's got touchdowns catches. He is the true all-purpose threat. Maybe as great as we've seen in this conference for a long time."

Al Groh, Virginia Head Coach

"C.J. Spiller ran 90 yards for Clemson at the end of the second quarter, his 18th career touchdown run of 50 yards or more. Spiller went 56 more yards to score on a pass from Kyle Parker. And you've hardly heard his name mentioned in Heisman Trophy conversations yet. Disgraceful.

"But you will, you will."

Edwin Pope, Miami Herald

"I have him (Spiller) as the 12th highest rated player on the Big Board. He's going to test out as one of the fastest players in the draft. Maybe run a 4.28 range. I think he's the top guy for the Heisman right now. If I had to give it out today, I give it to him. The fact that Clemson beat Miami gives them more credibility. They've put up big points the last two weeks. They have a game this week that they should rout. He should end up with outstanding numbers from an all-purpose yardage standpoint.

"If you're going for the best offensive player in college, Spiller catches, runs and returns....Spiller's numbers supercede everybody."

Mel Kiper, ESPN

"He woke everybody up on Saturday. He's the most explosive player in college football."

Tony Barnhart, College Sports Television

"Its almost prerequisite that Heisman Trophy candidates must be with a team that's in the conversation for the national title as well. That changes as of this past week. It makes that big of a difference that he did it against a team like Miami on the road. He catapults into the conversation based on that."

Tim Brando, CBS Sports

"Spiller was on the (Heisman) list for two weeks earlier in the season, and he returns after a dynamic all-around performance that helped knock off the Hurricanes. All game he showed off his game-breaking speed -- on a first-quarter catch out of the backfield, on the 90-yard kickoff return (he went untouched), on a long TD reception in the third quarter and on a long run in the fourth quarter that set up Clemson on Miami's 15-yard line. His 310 all-purpose yards set a new Tigers record. Amazingly, Spiller has a play of at least 60 yards in each of Clemson's seven games. He is 2005 Reggie Bush Lite, without the hype."

Gene Menez, SI.com

"When you talk about Clemson's offense, you have to talk about C.J. Spiller. He's a Heisman candidate. He is great when it comes to kickoff and punt returns. He's a big play guy with great speed. He's a guy you have to know where he is at all times."

Ralph Friedgen, Maryland Head Coach

"C.J. Spiller is one of the most unbelievable running backs I've ever played against. I'd be interested to find a handful of running backs that are as talented as him in the country."

Riley Skinner, Wake Forest Quarterback

"On offense they have C.J. Spiller, who can go the distance any time he touches the ball."

Paul Johnson, Georgia Tech Head Coach

"Heisman Trophy candidate C.J. Spiller is as fast and elusive as there is in college football."

Rick Stockstill, Middle Tennessee Head Coach.

"Against Miami on the kickoff return (for touchdown) someone clocked Spiller at 28 miles per hour. I talked with our police chief, David Roper, and he said they have some suped up golf carts and they don't even go that fast."

David Bennett, Head Coach Coastal Carolina.

1981 National Championship Team

Notes of Interest on the 1981 Team

- Clemson won its first national title in any sport and the first for the ACC in football in 28 years.
- Clemson had five different players earn All-America honors, more than any other Tiger team in history.
- There was no controversy concerning the voting of the National Champion in 1981. Clemson ended the season as the only undefeated, untied team in Division I after the bowl games and was the only team with three wins over top-10 teams.
- Head Coach Danny Ford (age 33 at the time) remains the youngest coach in history of college football to win the National Championship.
- Clemson forced 41 turnovers in the 12 games, still a school record for turnovers forced in a season.
- During one stretch in the season, the Clemson defense held the opposition without a touchdown for 18 consecutive quarters and no opponent scored a rushing touchdown against Clemson during the first seven games of the season.
- Clemson won the national title in 1981 after going 6-5 the previous season. The Tigers were unranked in every preseason poll entering 1981.
- Clemson's improvement of 5.5 games from 1980 to 1981 was the largest improvement in the nation.
- Only one team (Wofford) had more time of possession in a game against Clemson all season.
- Clemson had the lead at the end of the first quarter in just four of the 12 games.
- Clemson scored 316 points during the regular season of 1981, the exact same total Georgia scored in its 11-game regular season of 1980, the year the Bulldogs won the national title.
- Good health was a big reason for Clemson's success in the 1981 season. Only five different starters missed any games during the entire season and no player missed more than two games all year. A collective total of only eight games were missed by five starters during the 1981 season.
- No opponent had a run from scrimmage longer than 26 yards and no opponent had a play over 30 yards all season. The longest touchdown play against Clemson was 25 yards, on a halfback option pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels of Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.
- During offseason conditioning in the summer of 1981, Strength Coach George Dostal constructed a simple sign for his strength training facility..."1982 Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Nebraska."

- The Clemson senior student who was in charge of pep rallies for the 1981 season was former CBS This Morning anchor Jane Robelot.
- The day after Clemson defeated North Carolina in Chapel Hill, NC, placekicker Donald Igwebuike flew to Maryland, where Clemson's third-ranked soccer team defeated Maryland 4-0 to clinch the ACC title. Igwebuike played on two ACC Championship teams during that fall, both of which finished ranked in the top 10 in the nation.

Records Set in 1981 That Stand Today

- Points vs. ACC opponent (82 vs. Wake Forest, 10/31)
- Rushing yards in the modern era (536 vs. Wake Forest, 10/31)
- Total offense yards in a game (756 vs. Wake Forest, 10/31)
- Third-down conversion percentage in a game (100.0 (12-12) vs. Wake Forest, 10/31)
- Turnovers forced in a game (9 vs. Georgia, 9/19)
- Wins in a season (12)
- Wins over top-10 teams in a season (3)
- Turnovers forced in a season (41)

Bowl History

C.J. Spiller was named MVP of the 2009 Music City Bowl. Clemson defeated Kentucky 21-13.

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 16 bowl wins, 18th-most in NCAA history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

With its 2009 Music City Bowl win, the Tigers have played in a bowl game 21 of the last 25 years. That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985.

Clemson has beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Colorado, Miami (FL), Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, wins over Boston College, Missouri, and Miami (FL). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Clemson has a football program that has been steady over the years in bowl games, no matter who has been head coach. No less than seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all won bowl games for the Tigers.

Overall, nine of Clemson's 16 bowl wins have come against coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame, including 2007 inductee Joe Paterno of Penn State. Clemson has four bowl wins over coaches who are in the 200-victory club. Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Tom Osborne of Nebraska, Paterno and Nehlen are all coaches with at least 200 wins who lost bowl games to Clemson.

Clemson has bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in college football history:

- Frank Leahy, the second-winningest coach in college football history on a winning-percentage basis, when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

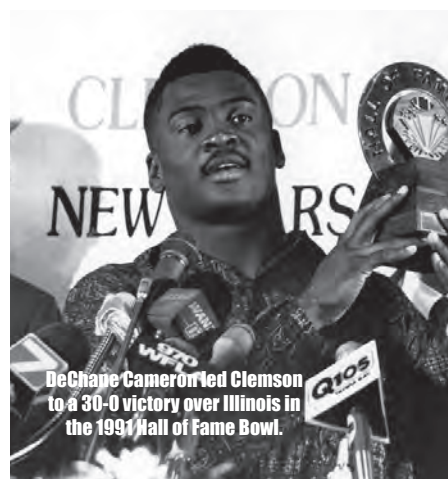

- Joe Paterno of Penn State, the winningest coach in Division I college football history on a total-wins basis, when Clemson defeated Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It is still the largest margin of defeat in a bowl game for Paterno, who is the win-

- Barry Switzer of Oklahoma, the fourth-winningest coach in Division I college football history on a winning-percentage basis, when Clemson defeated Oklahoma in 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne of Nebraska, the seventh-winningest coach in college football (Division I) history on a total-wins basis, when Clemson beat the Cornhuskers in the 1981 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its only national title.
- Don Nehlen of West Virginia, the 15th-winningest coach in Division I history when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer of Tennessee, who had over 150 career wins, when the Tigers defeated a #6 Tennessee team 27-14 in the 2004 Peach Bowl.

DeChane Cameron led Clemson to a 30-0 victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

- Clemson has been shown on live television 115 times in 138 possible games in the last 11 years. That means 83 percent of Clemson's games have been televised in the last 11 seasons. That includes 2006 when all 13 games were shown on live television, including seven on ESPN. Clemson was shown on ESPN as often as Notre Dame was shown on NBC in 2006. The Tigers have been on the ESPN family of networks 37 times in the last five years.
- Clemson had 11 television exposures in 2009, as the Tigers were on the ESPN family of stations six times. Clemson was also on ABC twice.
- Clemson's 2009 Gator Bowl game against Nebraska had a 4.1 rating, an increase of 58 percent over the 2008 Gator Bowl.
- Clemson has appeared on ESPN 61 times in the last 11 years.
- The Clemson-Florida State game has become one of the top spectacles in college football. Sixteen of the last 19 games in the series have been telecast by ABC, CBS, or ESPN. The 1999 game was the first-ever Division I meeting between father-and-son coaches, as Bobby Bowden faced son Tommy Bowden. It was one of the most highly-rated

- games in ESPN's Saturday evening primetime game history. The 2007 Clemson vs. Florida State game was shown on Labor Day night and received a 5.02 rating, the highest on the opening weekend of college football.
- In the 2003 season, the meeting between Clemson and Florida State was the highest-rated, regular-season college football game in the history of ESPN2.
- Over 300 members of the media cover the Clemson-Florida State game each year. The 1999 meeting attracted media from Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, and Washington D.C.
- Clemson's 2009 seniors appeared on television 45 times in 53 possible games. That included 35 appearances on either ABC or the ESPN family of networks.
- Clemson has an all-time record of 162-113-5 in televised games over the years, including a 85-40-3 record in games shown from Memorial Stadium.
- The ACC signed a new 12-year agreement with ESPN in July of 2010 that will bring nearly $13 million per year to Clemson.
- Clemson benefits from the considerable contracts that the ACC negotiates with ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2. The regular-season package is among the best in the nation, as it insures at least 72 ACC team exposures each year. Clemson has been shown in at least seven games every year since 1993, and that streak will continue in 2010.
- Clemson has its own replay network through College Sports Southeast (CSS). Each game is replayed on cable outlets throughout the southeast, and the games are also replayed on those channels during the summer.
- Clemson's Chick-fil-A Bowl game against Auburn in 2007 received a 5.02 rating, the highest-rated bowl game on ESPN in 2007.

Note: Subject to change.

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 58th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture...the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 121 national titles, including 64 in women's competition and 57 in men's. The league had a record eight teams win titles in 2009-10, four in men's sports and four in women's.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981, while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles #4 and #5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively.

In addition, Miami (FL) has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 26 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983,87,89,01) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991, Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

When Clemson running back C.J. Spiller, the ACC's Player of the Year, was chosen as the 9th overall selection it preserved a streak for the Conference of having a player chosen among the Top 10 Draft picks in each of the past five years. Since the 2006 Draft, the ACC is the only confer-

ACC Divisional Tiebreaker Procedure

Two-Team Tie

- Head-to-head between the two tied teams.
- Records of the tied teams within the division.
- Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall record (divisional and non-divisional), conference record, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division broken from first to last.
- Overall record versus all common non-divisional opponents.
- Combined record versus all non-division teams.
- Record versus common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
- The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series standings following the end of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the ACC Championship Game.
- The representative shall be chosen by a draw.

Three (or More) Team Tie

- Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams.
- Records of the tied teams within the division.

- Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) conference record, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken first to last.
- Overall record for non-division teams.
- Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
- Record versus common non-divisional with the best overall conference (divisional and non-divisional record) and proceeding through the other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within the division.
- The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series standings following the conclusion of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the ACC Championship Game, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five-or-fewer places of the highest-ranked tied team. In this case, the head-to-head results of the top two ranked tied teams shall determine the representative in the ACC Championship Game.
- The representative shall be chosen by a draw.

Note: Once tie has been reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker format is used.

ence to have had a Top 10 selection in each of the past five years.

In the last four years, the ACC has 34 first-round selections, second nationally among leagues by just two.

No fewer than 17 players on the rosters of the 2010 Super Bowl teams played their collegiate football at ACC schools, while 10 of the coaches had some connection to an ACC institution.

For the second straight year, the Atlantic Coast Conference led all conferences by a wide margin in the number of former football standouts selected from its current schools to play in the National Football League's Pro Bowl. Current ACC schools saw 23 of their former standouts selected to play in this year's Pro Bowl.

For the fifth consecutive year, the Atlantic Coast Conference led all conferences in the nation in the Football Bowl Subdivision in graduating its football players. ACC schools have combined to graduate their players at a rate of 72.33 percent according to the NCAA's 2009 Graduation Success Rate (GSR) survey.

2009 Seniors

2009 Review

Jacoby Ford's 26-yard touchdown reception from Kyle Parker in overtime lifted the Tigers to a 40-37 walkoff victory at #8 Miami (FL) on October 24, 2009.

Swinney Leads Clemson to Top-25 Finish

Clemson finished 24th in the final AP college football poll for 2009. The Tigers were 30th in poll points entering the bowl season, but jumped six spots after defeating Kentucky in the Music City Bowl, 21-13, on Dec. 27.

Dabo Swinney was one of just two coaches in his first full season with a program to take his team to a top 25 final ranking. Chip Kelly of Oregon, who led the Ducks to a #11 final AP ranking, was the only other first-year coach to do it this year. Swinney was the only first-year coach in the nation to take his program to a final top-25 finish without a preseason top-25 ranking.

Swinney was the third Clemson coach in history to lead the Tigers to a top-25 finish in his first full season. Charley Pell did it in 1977 when he led the Tigers to a 19th-place finish in the final AP poll, and Ken Hatfield did it in 1990 when the Tigers finished ninth in the final AP poll.

It marked the fifth time in the decade that Clemson finished in the final top 25, tied for the 18th-highest figure in the nation. It was the fourth time the program finished in the AP top 25 this decade without a preseason ranking. Only Boise State has accomplished that feat more than Clemson this decade, as the Broncos did it five times. Boston College and Oregon State have also done it four times.

Overall, it was the eighth time in history that Clemson finished in the final top 25 without a preseason ranking. The other years were 1977, 1981, 1983, 1986, 2003, 2005 and 2007.

Joining Clemson as teams that finished in the top 25 in 2009 without a preseason ranking were Cincinnati (8th), Pittsburgh (15th), Wisconsin (16th), Miami (19th), Texas Tech (21st), Central Michigan (23rd) and West Virginia (25th).

The importance of the bowl season on the final rankings was illustrated when comparing Clemson and West Virginia. Clemson was 30th in poll points and West Virginia was 18th in the rankings entering the bowl games, but the Tigers finished ahead of the Mountaineers in the final poll.

Northwestern, Houston, East Carolina, Arizona, Oklahoma State, Stanford, West Virginia and Oregon State were all ranked ahead of Clemson in the pre-bowl poll, but the Tigers jumped ahead of those schools in the final rankings.

Overall, it was the 25th season that Clemson finished in the top 25 of at least one national poll.

Tigers Captured Atlantic Division Crown

Clemson clinched the Atlantic Division title on Nov. 21 with a 34-21 win over Virginia at Memorial Stadium. It gave the Tigers a 6-2 league mark. Clemson finished a game ahead of Boston College in the standings. The 6-2 record was the best ACC mark for the Tigers since 2003, when Clemson was also 6-2. Clemson was also 6-2 in 2000.

Clemson won its first-ever ACC Atlantic Division crown in 2009.

It was the first time Clemson won the Atlantic Division since the format was adopted in 2005. In each of the first four years of the format, Clemson finished a game out of first place. From 2005-07, if Clemson had beaten Boston College, the Tigers would have gone to the ACC title game each time.

Tigers Beat Hurricanes and Seminoles

With the 40-24 win over Florida State on Nov. 7, the 2009 Tiger team became the first in school history to beat both Florida State and Miami (FL) in the same year. Clemson had beaten both teams before, including recent years, but never in the same year. Entering the 2009 season, Clemson had a combined record of 8-21 against those two programs over the years, so it was a significant accomplishment.

Clemson defeated #8 Miami on Oct. 24 at LandShark Stadium by a score of 40-37 in overtime.

It was an especially gratifying accomplishment for Clemson's 16 players from the state of Florida. The list included six starters. The list includes C.J. Spiller of Lake Butler, Clemson's top rusher, and Jacoby Ford of Royal Palm Beach, Clemson's top receiver, Jacksonville quarterback Kyle Parker, Clemson's top passer, and DeAndre McDaniel of Tallahassee, Clemson's interception leader.

Ranked Wins on the Road

Clemson gained victory over eighth-ranked Miami (FL) on Oct. 24. It was Clemson's 59th all-time win over a top-25 team, the 20th win over a team on an opponent's home field. It tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road. The other time was at #8 North Carolina in 1981, when the Tigers won by a score of 10-8.

To document such road wins over ranked teams, Clemson has constructed a graveyard at the entrance to the practice fields, and a tombstone has been erected for each victory over a ranked team on the road.

Three of the 20 road wins over ranked teams have now taken place in Miami. Clemson defeated the Hurricanes 15-14 in the 1951 Orange Bowl and downed the Hurricanes when they were #10 in the USA Today poll in 2004. Both of those games were played in the Orange Bowl.

Clemson's highest-ranked win regardless of site is a win over #3 Florida State at Memorial Stadium in 2003. The win over Miami was the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated since the Tigers upset #6 Tennessee in the 2003 Peach Bowl.

Clemson Had Seven Returns for Scores

Clemson had seven touchdowns not accounted for by the team's offense in 2009. The seven returns for touchdowns tied for first in school history for a single season. C.J. Spiller had five of the seven on kickoff or punt returns. The 1990 team also had seven returns for touchdowns.

The 2009 squad had four on kickoff returns (all by Spiller), two on punt returns (one by Spiller, one by Jacoby Ford), and one interception return for a score by DeAndre McDaniel.

Three Tigers in Top 20 in Six Categories

Clemson had three players who were in the final top-25 in the nation in various statistical categories. The list was led by C.J. Spiller, who was fourth in the nation in all-purpose yards, third in kickoff return average, fifth in touchdowns, and 14th in scoring. DeAndre McDaniel was third in interceptions per game and freshman safety Rashard Hall was 19th in the same category.

Placekicker Richard Jackson did not finish in the top 25 in field goals, but was the only player in the nation to kick six field goals in a game in 2009.

Three Tigers Named First-Team All-ACC

C.J. Spiller, Michael Palmer, and DeAndre McDaniel were all First-Team All-ACC selections according to voting conducted by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. The association has selected the official All-ACC football team since 1953, the first year of the conference.

Five Tigers made the second team, led by Jacoby Ford (WR), Thomas Austin (OG), Chris Hairston (OT), and Ricky Sapp (DE). Spiller was the first-team specialist and second-team running back.

Crezdon Butler (CB), Chris Chancellor (CB), Rashard Hall (S), Jarvis Jenkins (DT) and Brandon Maye (LB) were all honorable-mention selections.

Spiller Sixth in Final Heisman Voting

C.J. Spiller finished sixth in the 2009 Heisman Trophy voting, tied for the highest finish by a Tiger. Steve Fuller finished in a tie for sixth with Ted Brown of N.C. State in 1978, and that is the only other top-10 Heisman finish by a Clemson player.

Spiller had 26 first-place votes, 31 second-place votes, and 83 third-place votes in recording 223 Heisman points. He was named on 140 of the 925 ballots. He was 167 points behind Florida quarterback Tim Tebow in the voting. The 26 first-place votes and 223 points were also the most ever by a Tiger. Fuller had 19 first-place votes and 92 points in the 1978 Heisman voting.

Below are some other notes on Spiller and the Heisman Trophy voting.

- Spiller was the first ACC player to finish in the top six of the Heisman race since 2000, when Florida State quarterback Chris Weinke won the award. Since 1992, the only other ACC players (in the league the year of the voting) to finish in the top six were Joe Hamilton of Georgia Tech (second in 1999), Warrick Dunn of Florida State (fifth in 1996), and Charlie Ward of Florida State (first in 1993).

- Spiller's 26 first-place votes and 223 voting points were the most by an ACC player since Weinke won the award in 2000.
- The voting was close, as evidenced by the 28-point difference between first-place Mark Ingram of Alabama and second-place Toby Gerhart of Stanford, the closest margin for the winner in the 75-year history of the award. But Spiller's vote total was also an indication of the close race. Spiller's 26 first-place votes were the second-most by a sixth-place finisher since 1973. The only other sixth-place finisher with more in the last 36 years was the 46 first-place votes by Antwaan Randle El of Indiana in 2001. He finished sixth with 267 voting points that year.
- Spiller's point total of 223 was the third-most for a sixth-place finisher since 1973. Byron Hanspard of Texas Tech had just 15 first-place votes, but 251 voting points in 1996.
- Spiller joined a lot of celebrated players who have gone on to outstanding NFL careers with the sixth-place finish in the Heisman voting. Other sixth-place finishers include Bobby Layne of Texas (1947), Alan Ameche of Wisconsin (1953), Mike Ditka of Pittsburgh (1960), Dick Butkus of Illinois (1963), Bill Fralic of Pittsburgh (1984), Chris Spielman of Ohio State (1987), Warren Sapp of Miami (FL) (1994), Peyton Manning of Tennessee (1995), Michael Vick of Virginia Tech (2000), Matt Leinart of Southern California (2003), and A.J. Hawk of Ohio State (2005).
- Spiller had a similar finish to his boyhood idol, Warrick Dunn of Florida State. Spiller wore #28 because that was the number that Dunn wore in college and the NFL. Spiller finished sixth with 26 first-place votes and Dunn finished fifth with 40 first-place votes his senior year (1996).

Spiller #2 in NCAA in All-Purpose Running

Running back C.J. Spiller went over the 7,000-yard mark in all-purpose yards at South Carolina when he returned the opening kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown. He became just the fifth FBS player in history to reach 7,000 yards. He finished his career second on the all-time list with 7,588. The record is held by Brandon West of Western Michigan, who was a senior in 2009 as well. West finished with 7,764 yards.

The second chart below illustrates Spiller's versatility as a player. He finished his career as one of only five ACC players to accumulate 3000 rushing yards and 1000 receiving yards. Spiller finished with 3,547 rushing yards and 1,420 yards as a receiver out of the backfield for the Tigers.

Spiller Establishes ACC Record

C.J. Spiller had 176 all-purpose yards at Maryland and became the ACC's all-time leader in that area in the process. He finished his career with 7,588 all-purpose yards for his career and broke the conference record of 5,828 by Leon Johnson of North Carolina (1993-96). So, he broke the record by nearly 1,760 yards, or by 30 percent more than the previous record.

Spiller Third in ACC History in KOR Average

C.J. Spiller had 2,052 career kickoff return yards on 74 returns, a 27.7-yard average. That includes a 32.8-yard average in 2009. Spiller finished his career third in ACC history in kickoff return average. It is interesting to note that three of the top four averages in ACC history are held by former Clemson players.

Spiller also finished with 51 career touchdowns, a Clemson record, but just one score shy of the all-time ACC record of 52 set by Wali Lundy of Virginia.

Spiller & Ford the Nation's Top All-Purpose Duo

C.J. Spiller and Jacoby Ford established the record as the top all-purpose duo in the history of college football during the 2009 season. They combined for 11,671 yards and 72 touchdowns in their four years together. The previous record was 10,253 by Marshall Faulk and Darnay Scott of San Diego State (1991-93). Therefore, Spiller and Ford have the record by over 1,400 yards.

That computes to 6.63 miles of real estate on the gridiron for those two seniors combined. They played together for four years and graduated on the same day in Littlejohn Coliseum on Dec. 17, 2009.

Below is a rundown of their career totals in each statistical category.

Palmer Sets Tight End Receiving Record

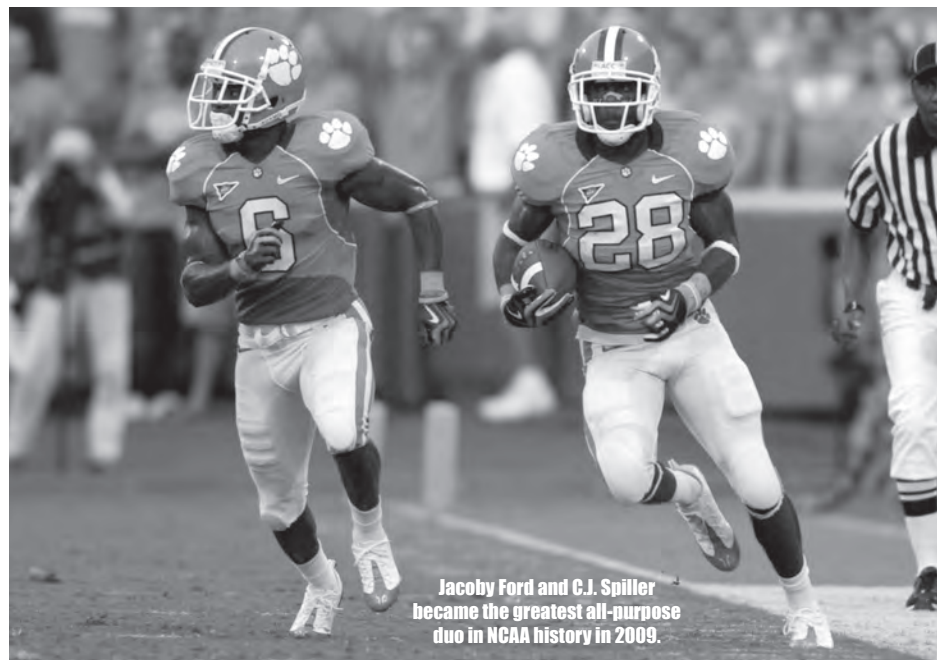

Tight end Michael Palmer had eight receptions for 106 yards and a touchdown in the loss at South Carolina. That was just the second 100-yard receiving game for a Clemson tight end in school history. John McMakin had four catches for 107 yards against The Citadel in 1970.

Palmer had quite a senior season with 43 catches for 507 yards and four scores. He broke the school record for catches in a season by a tight end when he had three against Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship game. The previous record was 40 by McMakin in 1970. Palmer established the yardage record when he caught a 22-yard scoring pass from Kyle Parker in the fourth quarter at South Carolina.

Palmer was named the top tight end in the nation by the John Mackey committee for his performance at #8 Miami (FL). He had five catches for 74 yards and a touchdown in the upset win over the Hurricanes.

2009 Game Recaps

Game 1

Middle Tennessee 14
Clemson 37

September 5, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

C.J. Spiller took the opening kickoff of the season back 96 yards for a touchdown and Clemson never looked back in its 37-14 victory over Middle Tennessee at Memorial Stadium on September 5. It was the second-ever meeting between the two schools and featured former Tiger assistant coach and current Blue Raider Head Coach Rick Stockstill on the opposing sideline.

After a 68-yard fumble return by Chris McCoy early in the second quarter cut Clemson's lead to 10-7, the Tigers added 20 points to take a 30-7 halftime lead, highlighted by Jacoby Ford's 61-yard punt return for a touchdown and 43-yard receiving score. It was only the second time in school history that the Tigers had a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in one game.

Kyle Parker, Clemson's first freshman quarterback to start a season-opener since 1945, was 9-20 for 159 yards and two scores. Ford (190) and Spiller (171) each had over 170 all-purpose yards, while Spiller earned ACC Specialist-of-the-Week honors. Brandon Maye had one of Clemson's three interceptions and added a team-tying-high 14 tackles, a tackle-for-loss, and caused fumble to earn ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week honors.

Game 2

Clemson 27
Georgia Tech 30

September 10, 2009
Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, GA

The #13 Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets jumped out to a 24-0 lead and overcame a furious comeback in their 30-27 win over Clemson at Bobby Dodd Stadium on September 10. The Tigers scored 27 consecutive points only to have Scott Blair kick the game-winning 36-yard field goal with 57 seconds left.

Georgia Tech used an 82-yard touchdown run, an 85-yard punt return for a score, and a 34-yard touchdown pass on a fake field goal to take an early lead. But the Tigers stormed back to take a 27-24 lead in the fourth quarter, highlighted by Kyle Parker's 77-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Ford in the third quarter. Richard Jackson later booted a 53-yard field goal to put Clemson ahead by three points early in the fourth quarter.

With the score tied and just over three minutes left, Parker hit Ford on third-and-11 for a would-be 38-yard pass to the Georgia Tech 18, but the Tigers were flagged for holding. The Yellow Jackets took over and set up the game-winning field goal.

Parker was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week after passing for 261 yards and three touchdowns. Ford added five catches for 109 yards and C.J. Spiller totaled 234 all-purpose yards.

Game 3

Boston College 7
Clemson 25

September 19, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Richard Jackson tied a school record with six field goals and Clemson limited Boston College to just 54 yards of total offense in the Tigers' 25-7 win at Memorial Stadium on September 19. On a rainy afternoon, the Tigers held their opponent to the fewest yards since 1963. The game was delayed twice for a total of 103 minutes due to lightning as well.

C.J. Spiller scored the game's only touchdown on a 77-yard punt return in the first quarter. He totaled 225 all-purpose yards.

Jackson was a perfect 6-6 on field goals and accounted for 19 of Clemson's 25 points. His long boot was 52 yards during a steady rain, as he earned ACC Specialist-of-the-Week honors and won the Leather Helmet Award as the game MVP.

Meanwhile, Clemson's defense held the Eagles to four first downs, 29 rushing yards on 28 carries, and 5-21 passing for 25 yards. Boston College's only score came on a 13-yard pass on the play after a Tiger fumble. The Eagles, who were 1-12 on third down, also had just one drive that lasted more than four plays.

Ricky Sapp was named ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week with three tackles for loss and two sacks. Rashard Hall, DeAndre McDaniel, and Jonathan Meeks each added an interception.

Game 4

TCU 14
Clemson 10

September 26, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Andy Dalton had 312 yards of total offense to lead #14 Texas Christian to a 14-10 win over Clemson at Memorial Stadium on September 26. It was the first meeting between the two in 44 years. Dalton was 17-26 for 226 yards and two scores, including the game-winner in the fourth quarter, and had 86 rushing yards.

The Horned Frogs amassed 388 yards of offense, but they had just two offensive snaps inside the Tiger 25 thanks to Clemson's defense. The game did not feature a turnover by either squad despite heavy rain falling during most of the second half.

After the Tigers drove 72 yards on the game's opening possession, they stalled and settled for a field goal. The Horned Frogs responded with a 91-yard drive that ended in Curtis Clay's six-yard touchdown catch. The drive was kept alive by a 58-yard pass to Ed Wesley on third-and-13 that was deflected at the line of scrimmage and was not even intended for Wesley.

Clemson regained the lead with 33 seconds left in the second quarter when C.J. Spiller rushed for a one-yard score. Three plays earlier, Spiller's 60-yard catch from Kyle Parker set up the score that gave Clemson a 10-7 halftime lead. Spiller rushed for 112 yards and had three receptions for 79 yards in the game.

After a scoreless third quarter, Antoine Hicks hauled in a 25-yard touchdown catch early in the fourth quarter. Clemson answered with a 59-yard drive, but Richard Jackson's 34-yard field-goal try sailed wide-left. The Tigers regained possession with 6:52 remaining and again drove 59 yards, but Parker's pass in the endzone on fourth-and-13 fell incomplete with 1:55 left.

Game 5

Clemson 21
Maryland 24

October 3, 2009
Byrd Stadium • College Park, MD

Maryland scored 17 points in the second quarter to take the lead and held on to defeat Clemson 24-21 at Byrd Stadium on October 3. The Tigers took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Terrapins mounted two touchdown drives of 76 and 81 yards in the second quarter and never relinquished the lead.

Jacoby Ford gave Clemson a 10-0 lead when he scored on a 17-yard reverse. Chris Turner's 29-yard touchdown pass to Torrey Smith cut Clemson's lead to 13-10, then Maryland marched down the field on its next drive and scored on Turner's four-yard pass to Ronnie Tyler with 35 seconds left in the second quarter.

Maryland upped its lead to 24-13 in the third quarter thanks in part to Tony Logan's 43-yard punt return to the Tiger one. Three plays later, Davin Meggett scored on a one-yard touchdown run. However, C.J. Spiller, who became the ACC's all-time leader in career all-purpose yards in the game, returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown after breaking several tackles and losing a shoe in Tiger territory.

But Clemson was unable to capitalize on three drives inside the Maryland 31 in the fourth quarter and fell by three points.

Game 6

Wake Forest 3
Clemson 38

October 17, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Clemson held Wake Forest to its fewest yards under Head Coach Jim Grobe in the Tigers' 38-3 victory at Memorial Stadium on October 17. The Tigers held the Demon Deacons' potent offense in check, allowing just 178 yards while tallying five sacks and 12 tackles for loss, including three by Da'Quan Bowers.

DeAndre McDaniel had one of two Tiger interceptions and was named ACC Defensive Back-of-the-Week for his efforts. He was a big reason Wake Forest's longest play was only 19 yards.

Meanwhile, Clemson's offense was efficient, as it scored on all five of its red-zone possessions with four touchdowns. The Tigers, who jumped out to a 31-3 halftime lead, totaled 382 yards, including 195 rushing and 187 passing, and 6.7 yards per play.

C.J. Spiller rushed for 106 yards on nine carries, including scores of 66 and 14 yards. Kyle Parker was 10-17 passing for 132 yards and a touchdown along with a rushing score, while Michael Palmer had a game-high four catches for 49 yards and a score.

Game 7

Clemson 40
Miami (FL) 37 ^(OT)

October 24, 2009
Land Shark Stadium • Miami Gardens, FL

Kyle Parker hit Jacoby Ford for a 26-yard touchdown pass on third-and-11 in overtime to lift Clemson to a 40-37 walkoff win over #8 Miami (FL) at Land Shark Stadium on October 24. It tied for the highest-ranked road win in Tiger history and was the third overtime game in a row against Miami. Neither team led by more than four points and there were nine lead changes.

C.J. Spiller, who was named ACC Specialist-of-the-Week, amassed 310 all-purpose yards. He had 81 rushing yards, six catches for 104 yards, and 125 kickoff-return yards, including a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a 56-yard receiving score. Parker was 25-37 passing for 326 yards and three touchdowns to earn ACC Rookie-of-the-Week honors, while DeAndre McDaniel was named ACC Defensive Back-of-the-Week after picking off two passes, including one for a touchdown.

Game 8

Coastal Carolina 3
Clemson 49

October 31, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Seven different Tigers accounted for Clemson's seven touchdowns in its 49-3 Homecoming win over Coastal Carolina on a rainy afternoon at Memorial Stadium on October 31. It was the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

The Tigers broke the game open with 14 points in the second quarter, highlighted by Jacoby Ford's 23-yard touchdown pass to Xavier Dye. Ford, who earlier caught a touchdown pass, became the first Tiger to throw and catch a touchdown in one game since 1950.

Clemson scored four more touchdowns in the third quarter, including a 55-yard scoring run by Andre Ellington, who had 88 yards on only six carries. Jamie Harper added 76 yards and a touchdown for the Tigers, who averaged 6.8 yards per carry.

Meanwhile, the Tiger defense did not allow the Chanticleers, whose longest offensive play was 15 yards, to snap the ball in Tiger territory until the fourth quarter. Freshman Corico Hawkins had a team-high eight tackles and both of Clemson's sacks.

Clemson 40

November 7, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Clemson rallied from a 17-6 deficit and scored 19 fourth-quarter points to defeat Florida State 40-24 at Memorial Stadium on November 7. Florida State took a 17-6 lead late in the first quarter on Jamie Robinson's 52-yard interception return for a score, but Clemson outscored the Seminoles 34-7 in the final three quarters to earn its fourth straight home win in the series.

Xavier Dye and C.J. Spiller caught touchdown passes of 43 and 58 yards, respectively, Andre Ellington and C.J. Spiller added rushing touchdowns, and Durrell Barry hauled in a two-yard receiving touchdown for the Tigers, who had 241 rushing yards, 242 passing yards, and 21 first downs in the game.

Spiller earned ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week honors by totaling 312 all-purpose yards, including 165 rushing and 67 receiving, along with two touchdowns. Kyle Parker was 18-30 passing for 242 yards and four touchdowns.

The Tiger defense had four interceptions against Christian Ponder, who entered the game with only three picks all year.

Game 10

Clemson 43
N.C. State 23

November 14, 2009
Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, NC

The #24 Clemson Tigers averaged 8.3 yards per play, 7.1 yards per carry, and scored six touchdowns en route to a 43-23 victory over N.C. State at Carter-Finley Stadium on November 14. It was the Tigers' sixth win in a row over the Wolfpack.

Clemson, who did not commit a turnover and converted 6-10 third downs, jumped out to a 17-0 lead on a 17-yard touchdown run by Jacoby Ford and a 17-yard touchdown pass from C.J. Spiller to Xavier Dye. Kyle Parker later threw touchdown passes to Michael Palmer and Spiller, while Jamie Harper added a 69-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Spiller, who earned ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week honors, threw a touchdown pass, rushed for a touchdown, and caught a touchdown pass. He became the first Tiger to do that since 1950. He rushed for 97 yards and had three catches for 48 yards. Parker was 12-18 for 183 yards and two touchdowns.

The Tiger defense limited Russell Wilson to 12-32 passing for 183 yards thanks in part to 11 pass breakups and an interception.

Game 11

Virginia 21
Clemson 34

November 21, 2009
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

The #18 Clemson Tigers topped Virginia 34-21 on Senior Day at Memorial Stadium on November 21. The Tigers clinched the best record (6-2) in the ACC Atlantic Division with the victory.

Both teams put up big offensive numbers in the first half, as Clemson took a 24-21 lead into halftime. Kyle Parker threw two touchdown passes in the first half, including strikes to Dwayne Allen and Jacoby Ford. But Virginia narrowed the margin to three points on Jameel Sewell's 23-yard touchdown pass to Mikell Simpson on the last play of the first half.

But the Tiger defense held Virginia scoreless in the second half. The Cavaliers had just 40 total yards, including -41 rushing yards, in the second half. The Tigers also had all seven of their sacks in the second half, including six sacks in the fourth quarter.

Ford had a game-high 211 all-purpose yards in his last home game, including six catches for 106 yards. Parker was 19-26 passing for 234 yards and two touchdowns against no interceptions.

Kavell Conner had a game-high 13 tackles against his home-state team, while Rennie Moore added a game-high two sacks. Clemson was also aided by an average starting field position at its own 48, while Virginia's was at its own 23.

Game 12

Clemson 17
South Carolina 34

November 28, 2009
Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, SC

South Carolina rushed for 223 yards, including 114 by Kenny Miles, in its 34-17 win over #15 Clemson at Williams-Brice Stadium on November 28. It was just the second Gamecock win in Columbia in the last 11 meetings in the capital city.

C.J. Spiller opened the game with an 88-yard kickoff return for a score, the seventh of his career to set an FBS record. But the Gamecocks outscored Clemson 17-0 the rest of the first half.

In the second half, South Carolina extended its lead to 24-7 on Stephen Garcia's 14-yard touchdown pass to Tori Gurley. After the teams traded field goals, Kyle Parker connected with Michael Palmer for a 22-yard touchdown pass to narrow the Gamecocks' lead to 27-17. But Weslye Saunders' one-yard touchdown catch on fourth down late in the contest sealed the victory.

The Gamecocks had a 38-31 advantage in average starting field position, including starting three drives at the Tiger 35 or better. Meanwhile, Clemson did not start a single drive outside its own 40. South Carolina also held the ball for 36:31 and scored a touchdown on all four of its red-zone possessions.

Palmer totaled eight receptions for 106 yards, both game-highs, while Jacoby Ford had five catches for 49 yards.

Game 13

Georgia Tech	39
Clemson	34

ACC Championship Game • December 5, 2009
Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, FL

Jonathan Dwyer capped an 86-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run with 1:20 left in the game to give #12 Georgia Tech a 39-34 win over #25 Clemson in the ACC Championship game at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL on December 5. It was Clemson's first ACC Championship game appearance.

The Tigers overcame a 33-20 deficit by scoring two fourth-quarter touchdowns to take a 34-33 lead, but thanks to Josh Nesbitt and Dwyer, who both had over 100 rushing yards, and Scott Blair's four field goals, Georgia Tech was victorious.

The Tigers averaged 9.5 yards per carry and 8.1 yards per play in the game, but Georgia Tech totaled 83 offensive plays compared to 51 for Clemson in a game that featured no punts.

C.J. Spiller was the game MVP after totaling 301 all-purpose yards, including 233 yards and four touchdowns. He averaged 11.7 yards per carry and had four rushes of 36 yards or more.

Game 14

Kentucky	13

Music City Bowl • December 27, 2009
LP Field • Nashville, TN

C.J. Spiller totaled 172 all-purpose yards and a rushing score in his final collegiate game to lead Clemson to a 21-13 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville, TN on December 27.

Spiller earned game MVP honors, as he had 67 rushing yards, three catches for 58 yards, and 47 kickoff-return yards. His touchdown was the 51st of his career to set a Tiger record.

The Wildcats drove 61 yards on their opening possession, capped by Morgan Newton's 17-yard touchdown pass to Chris Matthews. The Tigers answered late in the first quarter with Kyle Parker's 32-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Ford over the middle.

Jamie Harper, who had 79 yards on eight carries, gave Clemson the lead in the second quarter on his one-yard plunge.

In the fourth quarter, Kavell Conner stripped Gene McCaskill and Jarvis Jenkins recovered at the Wildcat 19. Three plays later, Spiller scored on an eight-yard touchdown run.

Clemson Ring of Honor Members

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree, and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

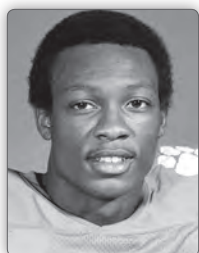

Ring of Honor Members

Rusty Adkins was the first baseball player named to the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1997. He is the only three-time All-American in Tiger baseball history (1965,66,67). A three-time First-Team All-ACC player, Adkins hit .444 in 1965, an average that remained a Tiger record for 37 years. Adkins had a 41-game hitting streak that remains in the top 10 in NCAA history. He was also named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002.

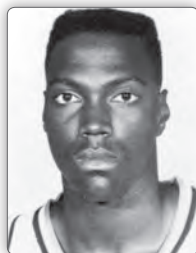

Bob Bradley was the first administrator named to the Ring of Honor in 2005. He served Clemson for 45 years in the sports information office as director and emeritus director. He received the Arch Ward Award as the College Sports Information Directors of America Man-of-the-Year in 1976. He was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame in 1975, the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1985, the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000, and the South Carolina Hall of Fame in 2001. The press box at Memorial Stadium was named in his honor during the 1988 season as well.

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a First-Team AP All-American in 1978 when he joined Fuller in leading Clemson to a #6 final national ranking and 11-1 record. He caught at least one pass in 36 consecutive games, a record that still stands today. In 1979, Butler was the #5 overall draft pick of the NFL by the Buffalo Bills, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for eight seasons.

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He still is fourth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns with 30. Cone was a starter on two undefeated Tiger teams, one of two players in school history to do that.

Dale Davis was the first men's basketball player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1999. He was a three-time All-ACC pick from 1987-91 and a first-team pick in 1990 in leading Clemson to its first ACC regular-season championship. He is still among the ACC's top 10 in career field-goal percentage. The first-round draft pick of the Indiana Pacers played 16 seasons in the NBA. He totaled 8,706 points and 8,605 rebounds in 1,094 games in his career.

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 National Championship team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles (175). Davis was also named MVP of the ACC and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national title for the Tigers. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2007.

Steve Fuller was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He is one of three football players in Clemson history to be chosen an All-American on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Fuller was a two-time, first-team academic All-American and a Third-Team AP All-American in 1978. He is still the only Tiger to be named ACC Player-of-the-Year twice, and was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Tiger athlete to win the award.

Frank Howard was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He was head coach from 1940-69, when he led Clemson to eight league titles, six bowl games, and six top-25 seasons. Howard, who had 165 wins, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989, and is the second-winningest coach in ACC history.

Barbara Kennedy was Clemson's first female athlete named to the Ring of Honor in 1999. She still holds the school's along with the ACC's career mark for points (3,113) and rebounds (1,252). Kennedy was a two-time All-America selection in 1981 and 1982, and three-time First-Team All-ACC player in the 1980, 1981, and 1982 seasons. She remains the only two-time All-American and three-time First-Team All-ACC selection in Clemson history as well.

Terry Kinard, who played for the Tigers from 1978-82, was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 2001, the same year he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The native of Sumter, SC was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports during his senior season in 1982. Kinard was named to the All Decade of the 1980's College Football team by USA Today and to the All-Century team of College Football by Sports Illustrated in 2000.

Tina Krebs was the first track athlete named to the Ring of Honor in 2003. A cross country, distance, and middle distance runner from 1982-86, her versatility helped shape Clemson women's track & field. She was an eight-time All-American in cross country, indoor track, and outdoor track, and was a three-time NCAA Champion, still the only athlete in any sport in Clemson history to win three national titles.

Banks McFadden was one of three charter members of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He was named the nation's most versatile athlete in 1939 when he was an All-American in football and basketball in the same calendar year. He is the only Clemson athlete to accomplish that feat. He led the Tigers to their first bowl bid, a 6-3 win over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, and to the Southern Conference basketball title. He was the #4 pick of the 1940 NFL draft, tied for the highest in school history.

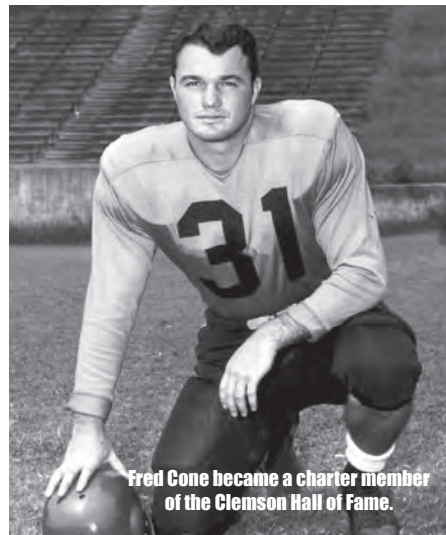

Charles Warren won the 1997 NCAA title, the first in Tiger golf history. That year, he defeated Brad Elder (Texas) in a one-hole playoff to win the honor. The following year, he finished second and was the recipient of the Dave Williams Award as the top senior golfer in the nation. Warren was a three-time All-American who led Clemson to a third-place national finish in 1997 and a second-place finish in 1998. He is now on the PGA Tour.

The 1981 Football Team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager, and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see pages 52,53.

Former Head Coaches

Walter Riggs 1896-99

Walter Riggs could easily be called the father of Clemson Football. He coached the football program at Clemson, not only because he had football experience, but he was also one of only two people on the Clemson campus to have ever seen a football game when the sport started in 1896. (The other person was Frank Thompkins who played in the backfield on Clemson's first team in 1896).

On September 30, 1896, a small crowd gathered in one of the barracks' rooms and the group discussed the feasibility of organizing a football association. A committee of three was appointed to consult Professor Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

When the Tigers traveled to Furman for their first game on October 31, 1896, it was the first time that many of the players had ever seen a full-sized regulation football field.

Riggs stepped down as football coach after the first season because the players wanted him to devote all of his time to being a professor in the engineering department.

Riggs could easily be called a loyal man, as he answered the need of the Clemson football team again in 1899. The Clemson Athletic Association was low on money and could not afford to hire a coach. Therefore, Riggs once again answered the call of the school and became the head coach in 1899 for free.

Riggs originally came to Clemson from Auburn. He graduated with top honors in 1892 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. At Auburn, he was captain and catcher of the baseball team as well as the manager and left end of the football team. He also served as class president and was the director of the Glee Club.

Upon his graduation at Auburn, he was assistant to the president of the college until 1896, then he made his trek to Clemson.

Riggs later became president of Clemson on March 7, 1911 and in 1915, a new football stadium with other athletic facilities was named in his honor as Riggs Field. It is currently the home of the Tiger soccer team. In two years of coaching, Riggs guided the Tigers to a career record of 6-3.

W.M. Williams 1897

Clemson's second coach, W.M. Williams, was a native of West Point, GA. He played at Auburn on the teams of '94, '95, and '96, under the coaching of John Heisman. He was considered the best blocking halfback in the south.

Williams led Clemson to the state championship and to a 2-2 season. During his time as coach, Clemson played two games in three days. Clemson was victorious over the Charlotte Y on October 23, but lost to North Carolina 28-0, on October 25.

John Penton 1898

The Tigers' third coach, J.A. Penton of Alabama, was captain and starting guard on the University of Virginia teams of '93, '94, and '95. He was captain of the '95 Virginia Team that beat UNC to win the Championship of the South. Penton also played fullback at Auburn in '97 under John Heisman's coaching. Under Penton, Clemson won 55-0 over Bingham in its first home game, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every point after touchdown (11). In his only season at Clemson, Penton guided Clemson to a 3-1 record and the state championship.

John Heisman 1900-03

One of the most famous football coaches in the nation, John Heisman, coached at Clemson from 1900-03. He turned Clemson from virtually an unknown college to a southern powerhouse at the turn of the century.

Heisman attended Brown University, taking the two-year law course offered at that time, and was a center on the football team. In the fall of 1889, he transferred to the University of Pennsylvania. He lettered in football at both schools and graduated from Pennsylvania in 1893.

In the spring of 1894, Walter Riggs was a graduate manager for the football team at Auburn. It fell on his shoulders to find a coach for the season of 1895. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams, the Pennsylvania captain of 1894, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Penn player, and his coach at Oberlin.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was raising tomatoes. Having sunk all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to return to his old love. He readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year.

His coaching career began at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years. It included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington & Jefferson, and Rice University. He had an overall career record of 185 wins, 70 losses, and 17 ties.

John Heisman invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral, and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass, arguing that it would scatter the mob. Heisman also originated the center snap and the word hike (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman guided Clemson to conference titles in 1900 and 1902, and he led the Tigers to their first "bowl game" in 1903, when Clemson and Cumberland met on November 26 for the "Championship of the South." Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama, and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky. The game was played on a neutral site, Montgomery, AL. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. After the news got back to Clemson that the game was a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Overall, Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Clemson baseball coach from 1901-1903.

Shack Shealy 1904

Shack Shealy holds the distinction of being the only Tiger to have coached his alma mater. He lettered at Clemson from 1896-99 and later played two years at Iowa State. Shealy was a four-year starter playing right guard, end, and in his senior year, he played in the backfield. He only coached Clemson one year (1904) and led the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record, including wins over Alabama, Georgia, and Tennessee.

John Heisman's last team in 1903 played Cumberland in a game for the "Championship of the South."

Eddie Cochems 1905

Ed Cochems lettered at Wisconsin in 1899, 1900, and 1901. Cochems was described as a great halfback or end on the strong Wisconsin teams at the turn of the century, including the undefeated team of 1901. During his playing career, he had a 100-yard kickoff return in a 35-0 win over Chicago in 1901, and had four touchdowns against Notre Dame in 1900. After his playing days, he immediately went into coaching. He was the head coach of North Dakota in 1902 and 1903 and served briefly as an assistant with former teammate, Art Curtis at Wisconsin in 1904.

Cochems led Clemson to a 3-2-1 record overall, including wins over Georgia and Auburn. After his Clemson career, he was head coach and athletic director at Saint Louis in 1906. After the forward pass was legalized in 1906, Cochems did something with the pass at once in his first year at Saint Louis, while other coaches stuck with the running game. He taught his players not to throw the ball end-over-end, but instead like a projectile - a spiral. He called this new weapon a projectile pass.

Historians credit Cochems as being the first coach to use and perfect the first legal pass in a game. The first studied refinements in throwing the ball, which led to the spiral, occurred in 1906 under Cochems. Brad Robinson of Saint Louis threw the first forward pass to Jack Schneider in a game played September 5, 1906 in Waukensha against Carroll College.

Bob Williams 1906,09,13-15,26

Bob Williams is one of the few coaches in the nation to have coached football at two rivals. Williams coached football at both Clemson and South Carolina. Before coming to Clemson, he coached at Davidson in 1905. He coached at South Carolina for two years and guided the Gamecocks to a 6-1 record in 1902 and an 8-2 slate in 1903.

In his career at South Carolina, he administered the most unexpected defeat of Clemson, as he beat a heavily favored Heisman team, 12-6 in 1902.

He served the Tigers as head coach a total of four terms (1906,09,13-15,26). Between the years of 1915 and 1926, Williams practiced law in Roanoke, VA and was the city's mayor.

One of the highlights of his career included leading the 1906 team to an unbeaten season (4-0-3), which included wins over Georgia, Auburn, Tennessee, and a Heisman-coached Georgia Tech squad.

Frank Shaughnessy 1907

Frank Shaughnessy was known for his ability as a sports administrator. He served many positions, from a pro hockey coach to the International Baseball League Commissioner. A graduate in pharmacy at Notre Dame, he was captain of the baseball and football teams during his senior season. After his graduation in 1905, he coached baseball at Notre Dame. The summer before coming to Clemson, he played for Ottawa of the Eastern League. That summer, he played left field and ended the season with a .352 batting average. He also played with Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics.

At Clemson, he coached the baseball teams during 1907 and 1908, and he was head football mentor in 1907, where he posted a 4-4 record.

During his lifetime, Shaughnessy made his name in baseball, but he took part in many other sports. Besides being a sports legend at Notre Dame, he managed the Ottawa Senators of the NHL to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1915, and he coached football teams at Clemson, Washington & Lee, and McGill University. He retired as the president of the International Baseball league.

During his playing days, in a game against Kansas, Shaughnessy ran 107 yards for the only Irish score, as Kansas won the game 24-5. Football fields were 110 yards back then and touchdowns were five points. This is still a Notre Dame record.

John Stone 1908

John Stone is one of three coaches to have graduated from Vanderbilt and later become the head football coach at Clemson. While at Vanderbilt, he was a member of the All-Southern Football team for four years. He was a big man for his time, standing 6'2". Clemson was 1-6 in 1908, but the Tigers lost many of their star players and substitutes from 1907 due to a college prank that saw 306 students expelled.

Frank Dobson 1910-12

Frank Dobson was a pro baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. He offered Dobson a three-year contract, which was the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach.

At Clemson, he coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading Clemson to its only undefeated season (4-0) in history in the inaugural season (1911-12). In 1912-13, Clemson finished the basketball season with a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach from 1911-13.

Wayne Hart 1916

Wayne Hart led Clemson in 1916 and coached the Tigers to a 3-6 record. Under Hart, the Tigers beat Furman and South Carolina. He played three seasons at tackle for Georgetown. He also played one season at George Washington. He was a member of the All-South Atlantic team four times. Hart also served as an assistant coach at Georgetown.

In 1913, he coached the Washington Vigilants, a professional football team, and did not lose a single game. During his last two seasons before arriving at Clemson, he coached various sports at Technical High School in Washington, D.C.

Edward Donahue 1917-20

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 school year, Donahue was head coach of four Clemson sports...football, basketball, baseball, and track. During his four-year career, he was basketball and baseball coach for two years and head track coach for one.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington & Lee, where he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball diamond. Upon graduation, he was an assistant in football and was the head baseball and basketball coach.

E.J. Stewart 1921,22

E.J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. During the fall, Stewart's football team had a 1-6-2 record, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

Stewart was a standout athlete in football, baseball, basketball, and track at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, OH. Upon his graduation, Stewart played, organized, and served as head coach of the Massillon (OH) Professional football team.

He also coached at Nebraska and Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916-1917. They also won the Missouri Valley Conference title both years. After leaving Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Because of the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

Bud Saunders 1923-26

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911 with a bachelor's degree in Law. At Missouri, he played football and basketball. He wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule forbade an athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders served as football coach at Knox College before coming to Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons from 1923-26. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. His best season in football came during the 1923 campaign, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 record.

Josh Cody 1927-30

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two seasons who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and posted a 72 percent winning mark overall, the fourth-best mark in Clemson history.

Former Head Coaches

After a 5-3-1 start in 1927, Cody guided Clemson to back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 1928 and 1929. On May 6, 1929 to show appreciation, he was given a new Buick by the alumni, student body, and faculty. This presentation took place in front of Tillman Hall.

In his final season (1930), the Tigers finished with a final record of 8-2. Cody also coached basketball at Clemson for five years and guided Clemson to a 16-9 slate in 1930. During the 1928-30 seasons, he guided Clemson to a 22-4 mark at home.

Jess Neely
1931-39

Clemson played in its first bowl game under Jess Neely in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The Tigers, unknown at the time, became a household word after beating heavily-favored Boston College 6-3 in the Cotton Bowl. It was the Tigers' first win over a top-20 team. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely came to Clemson in 1931 and his recruitment of Banks McFadden brought Clemson to another level of competition. In 1938, Neely coached Clemson to a second-place finish in the Southern Conference with a 7-1-1 record.

In 1939, Banks McFadden became Clemson's second All-American, and the team concluded the season with a trip to Dallas for the Cotton Bowl. Neely left Clemson in January of 1940 and moved on to Rice, where he took that school to new heights. Neely is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Neely's landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to Clemson's outstanding football tradition.

Frank Howard
1940-69

Frank Howard succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 when Neely moved on to Rice. He got the job when he seconded his own nomination during a meeting of the president and athletic council. He signed a one-year contract, then lost the document, and never had another in his 30 years as head coach.

He graduated from Alabama in 1931, where he was a star lineman. He played in the 1930 Rose Bowl, then started his coaching career under Neely at Clemson in 1931, and was a part of a rebirth of Tiger football in the late 1930s. He was an assistant on the 1939 team that posted a 9-1 mark and beat Boston College 6-3 in the Tigers' first bowl game.

In 1940, he began his head coaching career with a bang as he won the Southern Conference championship, the first of eight conference titles Howard won in his coaching career.

Howard had his most successful season in 1948 when he took Clemson to an 11-0 record, the Tigers' first perfect season since 1900. The campaign included a Southern Conference championship, a Gator Bowl win over Missouri, and a number-11 final ranking. He nearly duplicated the feat in 1950 when he guided Clemson to a number-10 AP final ranking, a 9-0-1 finish and a 15-14 win over Miami (FL) in the Orange Bowl.

When he retired in 1969, Howard was the fifth winningest coach in the nation with 165 victories. He had 96 wins as an ACC coach, now second in conference history, and he captured six (five outright and one co-championship) ACC titles, a record Bobby Bowden broke in 1998. Howard's teams appeared in six bowl games, 63 of his players were drafted by the NFL, and 37 played in the league.

Howard, a native of Barlow Bend, AL, had six top-20 seasons, won eight conference titles (two Southern, six ACC), won 100 conference games and was a two-time

ACC Coach-of-the-Year. He coached 25 academic All-ACC selections and five Academic All-Americans. Eleven of his players were chosen on-the-field All-Americans. Howard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

Hootie Ingram

Hootie Ingram will be best remembered as the coach who made the Tiger Paw famous. Before his first year as head coach in the summer of 1970, Clemson introduced the Tiger Paw as the official logo of Clemson University's Athletic teams.

Ingram graduated from Alabama in 1955. He also received his master's in school administration from Alabama and later became Crimson Tide athletic director. The native of Tuscaloosa, AL was an All-Southeastern Conference defensive back for the Crimson Tide his senior year.

Ingram had his best season at Clemson in 1971 with a 5-6 record. He also finished second in the ACC standings with a 4-2 league mark in 1971.

Red Parker
1973-76

Red Parker spent four years at Clemson as head coach. His 1974 team lived up to the theme "Excitement Galore, Clemson Football '74" and had a 7-4 record, with wins over Georgia, Georgia Tech and South Carolina.

Before arriving at Clemson, Parker spent seven years (1966-72) at The Citadel. He guided the Bulldogs to a fine 8-3 finish in the 1971 season.

Parker earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arkansas A&M in 1953. Prior to his graduation, he earned three letters each in football, basketball and track, as a running back-defensive back, second baseman-shortstop, and sprinter.

Charley Pell
1977,78

Charley Pell, who was Clemson's head coach in 1977,78 authored college football's Cinderella story in 1977. The Albertville, AL product took a team that was 3-6-2 in 1976, and led the '77 Tigers to an 8-2-1 regular-season mark and a berth in the Gator Bowl. It was Clemson's first final top-20 season since 1959. He coached Clemson to a 10-1 regular season in the 1978 season before he left to become head coach at Florida. Clemson's 1978 team beat Ohio State in the Gator Bowl and finished ranked #6 in the AP poll in his second year as Clemson's head coach.

He was a near unanimous choice as ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, the first coach, regardless of sport, to win ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in each of his first two years. A two-way starter and three-year letterwinner at Alabama, Pell was on its 1961 National Championship team.

He came to Clemson in 1976 and served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Pell passed away in June, 2001 after battling cancer.

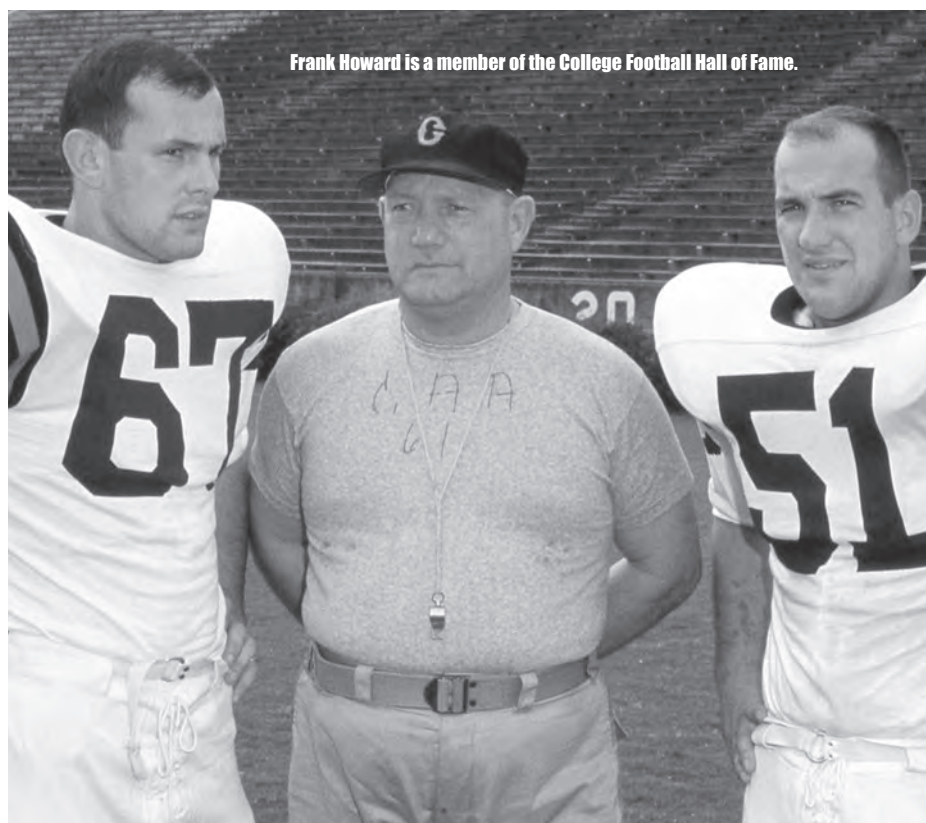

Danny Ford
1978-89

Danny Ford had an auspicious beginning to his head coaching career. He gained a 17-15 victory over Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl in a nationally-televised game. The 30-year-old coach, the youngest in Division I at the time, also defeated a college football legend in a contest that truly put Clemson football on the national map, as he defeated Woody Hayes in the latter's last game. He had taken over the coaching reigns on December 10, 1978 when Charley Pell resigned to become head coach at Florida.

Ford kept things going in 1979 with wins over Georgia and Notre Dame and another trip to a bowl (Peach). In 1981, he helped Clemson reach the summit of college football by winning the national title. His Tigers downed three top-10 teams during the course of the 12-0 season that concluded with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Ford was named National Coach-of-the-Year.

The wins continued in 1982 and 1983, as Clemson had consecutive 9-1-1 years. Clemson finished in the top 12 in both years, and had a 30-2-2 record over a three-year period, best in the nation.

Clemson won three straight ACC titles under his guidance between 1986-88. In 1989, Clemson registered a 10-2 season and top 12 national ranking, the fourth straight season Clemson finished in the final AP top 20. He closed his career with a 27-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, his sixth bowl win in eight tries and his fourth in succession.

Ford was the third winningest active coach in the nation on a percentage basis at the end of the 1989 season. He finished with a 96-29-4 career ledger at Clemson and remains one of only two coaches in ACC history with better than a 75 percent winning mark (minimum of four years). He finished with a 76-percent winning percentage and five ACC Championships, second only to Frank Howard's six crowns.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is still the youngest coach to win the national title, as he was just 33-years-old when the Tigers shocked the college football world in 1981. He coached 71 first-team All ACC selections and 26 All-Americans. Forty-two of his former Tigers were drafted by the NFL, and he earned 18 wins over Associated Press top 20 teams during his career, more than any other Clemson coach. Additionally, 11 of his former players won Super Bowl Championship rings. At one stretch his teams were ranked in the AP top 20 for 41 consecutive polls, a Clemson record.

Ford was an All-SEC pick and All-SEC Academic choice at Alabama. He attended Alabama initially on a basketball/football scholarship, but he only played football after his freshman year. He played in three bowl games for the Crimson Tide. He later served as head coach at Arkansas from 1994-97. He is now retired and living in Pendleton, SC.

Ken Hatfield 1990-93

Ken Hatfield led the Tigers to a 32-13-1 record over his four year tenure, led the squad to three bowl appearances and an ACC title. With a victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl, Hatfield became the first Clemson coach to win 10 games in his first year and his .833 winning percentage was the best for a first-year Clemson coach since 1900, when John Heisman was 6-0. That season included six victories over teams with winning records, more than any other team that year with the exception of National Champion Georgia Tech.

Hatfield was also just the eighth coach in the previous 13 years to take a team to a top-10 AP final ranking in his first year with the program, as the Tigers finished the season ranked ninth in the AP poll. The Helena, AR, native would also lead the 1991 and 1993 teams to top 25-rankings. Clemson became the third school that Hatfield had coached to a top-20 ranking, as his 1983 Air Force team ranked #15 and he led four Arkansas teams to top-20 rankings. He was the sixth coach in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Hatfield played for three years at Arkansas (1962-64) and was a starter on the 1964 National Championship team. The defensive back earned his fame as the nation's top punt returner in 1963 and 1964. He still ranks as the only player ever to finish in the top two in the nation in punt returns three straight years, as he finished second in 1962. He retired as the head coach at Rice in 2005 with 168 career victories. He is now retired and living in Arkansas.

Tommy West 1993-98

Tommy West's five-year résumé as Clemson head coach included four bowl appearances, 12 road victories, 86 school records, and unparalleled academic excellence. West took Clemson to three straight bowl games between the 1995 and 1997 seasons, just the second Clemson coach in history to take the Tigers to bowl games in three straight seasons.

Academically, 61 Tigers made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in his last four years, twice as many as the best previous four-year total in school history.

West took over as head coach on November 29, 1993 and less than a month later had a bowl victory. The former Tennessee tight end succeeded Ken Hatfield, who left four days after a victory over South Carolina to end the 1993 season.

It was West's second tour of duty with Clemson. He had been a linebackers coach under Danny Ford between 1982-89. Clemson was 69-20-4 and had six AP top 20 finishes in that eight-year era.

West coached the Tigers in the 1993 Peach Bowl, a thrilling 14-13 victory over Kentucky. He became the first coach in college history to gain victory in a bowl game in his first game without having coached the team in any capacity earlier in the year.

West's best season was 1995, as Clemson finished the regular season with five straight victories by 17 points or more and was invited to the Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of every poll at the end of the 1995 regular season. That Clemson team also finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense.

West recruited some of the top players in Clemson history. The school was in the top 10 in the nation in NFL draftees during the 1998 and 1999 selection process, and all 11 players were recruited by West. The list included three first-round defensive selections (Trevor Pryce, Anthony Simmons, Antwan Edwards). Clemson was the only school in the nation to have six defensive players drafted in 1999 and the only school to have a first-round defensive choice in 1997, 1998, and 1999.

The native of Gainesville, GA finished his career with a 31-28 record, and had four wins over top-25 teams. He was the head coach at Memphis from 2001-09 and he led the Tigers to a nine-win season and the program's first bowl appearance in 32 years in the 2003 season. He took Memphis to five bowls overall and finished with a 49-61 record at Memphis.

Tommy Bowden 1999-08

Tommy Bowden was a consistent winner over his nine-and-a-half seasons as Clemson's head coach. Between 1999 and 2008, he never had a losing season, and that included a streak of eight consecutive winning seasons between 2000-07. During those seasons, only four other Division I coaches had a winning season in all eight of those years with the same program.

Bowden was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, joining Frank Howard, Charley Pell, and Danny Ford with that distinction. He first won the honor in 1999, his first year when he took over a team that had been 3-8 the previous season, to a 6-6 season against a top-10 schedule according to the Sagarin ratings. Clemson played three undefeated teams during the regular season (Marshall, Virginia Tech, Florida State).

His first year included a nationally-televised game against Florida State that featured the first-ever Division I coaching matchup of father and son. Bobby Bowden's Tommy Bowden never had a losing season in his tenure at Clemson.

Seminole won that game by a score of 17-14, Florida State's closest game in an undefeated National Championship season. The game attracted over 85,000 fans and the largest media contingent in the history of Memorial Stadium. There were nine Bowden Bowls overall, with Bobby winning five, but Tommy won four of the last five.

Bowden took Clemson to an 8-0 start and a #3 national ranking in 2000 before finishing with a 9-2 regular-season record and a #14 final ranking. The regular season concluded with a 16-14 victory over a top-25 South Carolina team. A 50-yard pass from Woodrow Dantzler to Rod Gardner is regarded as one of the most-exciting plays in Clemson history. Dantzler went on to become the first quarterback in Division I history to reach 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season (2001).

Bowden also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2003 when he led the Tigers to a 9-4 record. That season, the Tigers won their last four games, including a 26-10 win over #3 Florida State. That is the highest-ranked team Clemson has beaten in school history. Clemson defeated South Carolina 63-17 in the regular-season finale and completed the season with a 27-14 win over #6 Tennessee in the Peach Bowl. Clemson finished the year in the top 25 of both polls as well.

Bowden finished with a 7-2 record against the Gamecocks. The 77.8 winning percentage is the best in school history among Tiger coaches who served the program at least five years. All seven of his wins were over Hall of Fame Head Coaches Lou Holtz and Steve Spurrier.

After a 3-3 start to the 2008 season, Bowden resigned on October 13, four days after a 12-7 loss at Wake Forest. He had a 72-45 record (.615) at Clemson for those nine-and-a-half seasons. Bowden never had a losing season, overall or in the ACC, during his nine complete seasons. He led the Tigers to eight bowl games.
